SUNDAY OF LENT

"If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."
- Jn 4:10

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

FORMED

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

March 12, 2023, Third Sunday Of Lent— Formed.org.

Review: In ancient times, access to a reliable well was essential. Without a steady supply of clean water, life would be difficult, if not impossible. In this week's Gospel, we see Jesus sitting by a well in the country of Samaria. It's noon, and we can assume that he is hot and tired. We know he is thirsty, because he asks a woman who is there drawing water to give him a drink. This woman, known to us as the Samaritan Woman at the Well, has a checkered past. The upstanding women of the community drew their water early in the day; she doesn't want to be seen so she comes at an off-hour. When Jesus, who is a Jew, speaks to her, she is taken aback. Jews didn't usually speak with Samaritans. In fact, a little later when his disciples join him, they aren't too keen on the fact Jesus was chatting with a Samaritan woman either. In this week's study, we will see that this Gospel scene has a kind of nuptial quality about it because a well is where a groom would come to meet his bride. Like a bridegroom lovingly seeking his bride, Jesus ardently desires this Samaritan woman (and her people whom she represents) to be reunited with God. The Samaritan woman has been a bride five times, and Jesus points this out. But then he goes beyond reminding her of her failure by reaching into the recesses of her deepest wounds of rejection and lack of love to tell her that he is, indeed, the long awaited one, the Messiah—the one who will fulfill her deepest thirsts and longings. Through her, Jesus invites the Samaritan people, who were separated from the people of Israel, to return to their true bridegroom. By extension, he also invites all of us who come to him with open, thirsting hearts to join him at every Mass—at the Marriage Supper of the Lamb—so that we might say with the Samaritans: "This is truly the savior of the world!"

Featured study: Salvation Is from the Jews by Roy Schoeman, this study will strengthen your Catholic beliefs in incredible ways.

Reflection: At the time of the Messiah's coming, Rome held Israel in its imperial grip. Yet despite its many struggles, Israel knew that "salvation is from the Jews," as Jesus says to the Samaritan woman in today's Gospel. That phrase suggests that salvation is intended to be passed "from" Israel to all nations. This scene points to the future extension to all nations of the salvation won by Christ. Samaria represents the first step in spreading the Gospel to the whole world. Jesus points ahead to "an hour" when worship "in Spirit and truth" will be offered to God not merely "on this mountain nor in Jerusalem," but everywhere in the world. Although the Jews are God's firstborn, we see in this passage that in Jesus, God's plan is for the whole world, for every soul. Jesus encourages his disciples to look at the world anew and to see beyond the borders of Israel and beyond the national and racial limits of Jacob (Israel). "Open your eyes and see! The fields are shining for harvest!" he exclaims. The universal purpose of God's saving work in Christ is given its last word in the last line of this reading, appropriately spoken by the Samaritans: "This is truly the savior of the world!"

HOLY WEEK REKINDLES ANCIENT CHURCH TRADITIONS PART 3

In Holy Week, the days just before Easter, one can catch Catholics in some ancient religious practices – some are so rare, they're done only once a year. Over the next few weeks, we will look at a few of these practices in more detail.

THE LORD'S SUPPER

On Holy Thursday, the Catholic Church celebrates a special Mass of the Lord's Supper – that commemorates the institution of the Holy Eucharist at the Last Supper. On the night before Jesus Christ was crucified, he changed bread and wine into his own Body and Blood, and he commanded the Apostles – and their successors through the centuries – to act in his stead and represent this sacrifice. So at every Mass, by way of transubstantiation, the bread and wine offered by the priest become Christ's Body and Blood again.

WASHING FEET

Just as Christ did for his 12 Apostles at the Last Supper and as he commanded them to do likewise, during the Mass of the Lord's Supper, the priest – who represents Christ – ceremoniously washes the feet of 12 people in the congregation. At the Holy Thursday liturgy in the Vatican, even the pope performs the foot washing. In fact, across the centuries, it has been practice for the pope to wash the feet of 12 priests after Mass and of 13 poor men after his dinner.

MINISTRY TO THE SICK & HOMEBOUND

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

(EMHCs) who take Communion to the sick and homebound have a role in sharing the Church's total ministry to the sick after the manner of Jesus. In bringing Communion to the sick and homebound the EMHC represents Christ and manifests faith and charity on behalf of the whole community towards those who cannot be present at the Mass. This ministry is a sign of support and concern shown by the community for its members. We are in need of more volunteers to become Eucharistic Ministers for this undertaking. CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD (CLOW)

Children's Liturgy of The Word (CLOW) is starting back up. CLOW will only be offered at the 10 am Mass. However, we would like to offer this at every Mass. For this we need you!

LOAVES & FISHES

We are a successful, spiritual and giving ministry. We prepare a pasta meal for the homeless @ 12th & North C Street. After the 8:00 am Mass at SJV, 6-10 volunteers leave to prepare the pasta meal for 300-800 people. Our duties include cleaning the dining room and preparing the room for our homeless guests. We welcome all volunteers. For more information or to volunteer, contact: John Morales at 916-635-2019

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (CGS)

Starting this Thursday in the Atrium, we will be in closer contact with our Lord Jesus, Our Good Shepherd. We want to know more about Him and learn to love Him more. We know that He knows each of us and calls us by name. We know His voice and will follow Him without fear. Jesus is our Good Shepherd who cares for us all. In the Atrium each of us will have special and personal time with Jesus. Yes! Everyone will have prayer time alone with Jesus, and will light a purple little candle while praying to make it special! All during Lent we want to tell Jesus that we love Him more and more every day. We know that He suffered and died for the love of us, so we want to love Him back. That is what Lent is for!

Please, join us in telling Jesus at least once a day that you love Him and that you are thankful for all He has done and continues to do for you and your family. Lent is the time for giving love back to Jesus. Let's tell Him for 40 continuous days that we love Him with all our hearts, minds, and souls. Let's have a holy and blessed Lent.

Vatican News

By Courtney Mares, Vatican City, Feb. 26, 2023

'Pope Francis: The Devil Uses 'Three Widespread and Dangerous Temptations' To Divide Us'

On the first Sunday of Lent, Pope Francis warned of three “widespread and dangerous temptations” that the devil uses to separate us from God and divide us from each other. In his Angelus address on Feb. 26, the pope said that the devil uses three “powerful poisons” to attack and divide Christian communities: attachment to material things, mistrust, and the thirst for power.

“[These] are three widespread and dangerous temptations that the devil uses to divide us from the Father and to make us no longer feel like brothers and sisters among ourselves, to lead us to solitude and desperation. This is what he wanted to do to Jesus and what he wants to do to us, to lead us to despair,” Francis said. The pope pointed to the Gospel of Matthew to offer advice for how to overcome the three types of temptations, as Jesus did when he was tempted by the devil after 40 days of fasting in the desert. “Jesus defeats the temptations. But how does he conquer them? By avoiding discussion with the devil and responding with the Word of God,” he said.

Pope Francis explained that Jesus resisted the devil “by opposing him in faith with the Divine Word.”

To counteract the temptations of attachment to material things, mistrust, and the thirst for power, Jesus quotes three phrases from Scripture that speak of freedom from goods, trust, and service to God. “In this way, Jesus teaches us to defend unity with God and among ourselves from the attacks of the divider,” he said.

ADDRESSING THE WOUNDS INFLICTED BY CLERGY ABUSE

Dear Friends in Christ,

In the March/April issue of the Catholic Herald magazine, you will read about the ongoing efforts of the Diocese of Sacramento to protect the young and vulnerable, to create truly safe spaces for all God's People, and to atone for the devastating sin of clergy sexual abuse. All of these are lifetime endeavors; a key part of who we are as a Church for all time.

A vital aspect of owning and atoning for the sins of the past is resolving claims brought forward by victim-survivors in a fair and responsible manner. I have committed to this principle and attempt to live it in every case.

This year, there is a very important development I must share with you.

RETREAT FOR SJV WOMEN

All SJV ladies are invited to our annual women's weekend retreat April 14-16, 2023 at Christ the King Retreat Center, 6520 Van Maren Lane, Citrus Heights, Ca. 95621. This year's theme is: “May the Passion of Jesus Christ, Be Always In Our Hearts.” [Walking with Jesus to the Ends of the Earth.] Please contact parish coordinator Connie Lagerstrom at 916-635-3865 or Kathy, directly at Christ the King, 916-725-4720 Ext. 307, with questions or go to their website: www.christthekingretreatcenter.org.

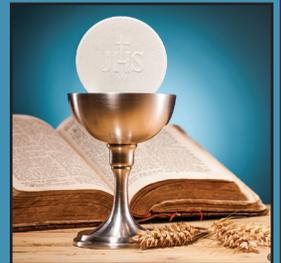

Let us pray for those who are thinking of making space in their busy lives to prayerfully consider this experience of much needed spiritual renewal with the excellent Passionist Fathers' retreat team.

Kairos Weekend At Folsom Prison

We ask for prayer support for this 4-day weekend starting March 16. Please use the link <https://www.prayervigils.net/> to sign up to offer prayers during our K-26 Weekend, or pray individually for the Holy Spirit to manifest the love of Christ to the 42 inmates who will be participating. During Lent we are encouraged to give alms. If you're led to support this ministry, please mail a check made out to Kairos Prison Ministry. Mail to 6971 Brayton Ave., Citrus Heights CA 95670. Just $10 will pay for a meal for an inmate.

Calling all Extraordinary Ministers

Each mass will now have five extraordinary ministers. All extraordinary ministers will need to arrive 15 minutes before mass and sign the sign-in sheet. If your name is not on the sign-in sheet, please complete the extraordinary minister form that is located on the tables at each exit and hand the completed form to the mass Sacristan. The Sacristan will provide the completed forms to Elizabeth Alden after the 8:00 AM mass. Thank you for volunteering to serve our Lord.

Taizé Prayer Service

Taizé Prayer Service (Bilingual) 7:00PM, SJV Church

Join us every fourth Thursday of the month for an hour of adoration in the form of the Liturgy of the Hours in the spirit of Taizé. Taizé is a form of contemplative prayer full of scriptures, silence and sacred music.

Each Holy Hour starts with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament followed by the Liturgy of the Hours in the spirit of Taizé and ending with benediction. Confessions are offered during Adoration.

Our next Adoration is on Thursday, March 23rd.
