APRIL 24, 2022 | DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER (DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY)

Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." - Jn 20:28-29

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

April 24, 2022 Divine Mercy Sunday – Formed.org.

Video overview: The two sides of Christ's love. He mercifully loves us wherever he finds us, even in our sin, but he loves us too much to leave us there and thus calls us to a higher standard. The Gospel recounts Jesus' first appearance to his disciples after the Resurrection. One of the first things Jesus does is to show them the wounds in his hands and side. These wounds are the effects of sin. The disciples realize their own sinfulness when they see the risen Lord. But Jesus doesn't come just to show the disciples the effects of sin. He also tells them, "Peace be with you." In the ancient Jewish world "peace" didn't mean just a calm feeling, but it described right relationship and friendship. In coming to meet his friends for the first time since they abandoned him on Good Friday, Jesus not only shows them his wounds, but he speaks words of comfort and forgiveness. These are the two sides of Christ's love: He comes to show us the truth of our sin and its consequences, but he also comes with mercy and forgiveness. He comes to offer "peace." The place where we experience these two aspects of Christ's love most profoundly is in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We might be reminded of this sacrament when Jesus tells the apostles that as the Father has sent him, so he now sends them. Jesus was sent by the Father for the forgiveness of sins, and now he is sending his apostles, enabled by the Holy Spirit, to participate in this ministry of forgiveness. Our priests and bishops continue this ministry in the Sacrament of Reconciliation as the successors of the apostles. Are you ready to avail yourself of both sides of Jesus' love?

Featured study: Life in Christ—Part II

Reflection: As a Church we're present on Easter morning to witness the manifestation of the risen glory of Jesus Christ. We share the joy and recognition of St. Mary Magdalene and that of the apostles to whom she acts as an apostle of the Resurrection. But just as we're represented collectively as a Church in the characters of the Magdalene and the apostles, we're also absent and remain doubting on that first Easter day in the person of Thomas. The Second Sunday of Easter could be called Thomas' Easter. He represents that part of us that holds out against faith, relentlessly asking for proof, for confirmation. Thomas is a particularly good model for our age. He demands an empirical, tangible demonstration that Jesus is risen in the flesh. In John's Gospel, seeing is believing. John seems to emphasize the evidence that sight supplies to the identity of the Lord Jesus. Sight and blindness are metaphors for enlightenment and sin. So, there's tension between the evidence that Jesus gives us and our human insistence that he continuously reinforce our faith with signs. The Catholic conception of belief has always respected our human need for the faith that perfects our reason. The Church respects both, because Jesus respected both.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Question:

Where did the feast of Divine Mercy come from?

Answer:

If you were born well before the year 2000, you know the feast of Divine Mercy has not always been celebrated in the Church. In the early 1900s, a young Polish nun began receiving private revelations. Jesus appeared to her during her times of prayer, speaking a message of mercy and love for the world. She received a set of prayers – the Divine Mercy Chaplet – and the request to have a feast day established to remind the Church of the mercy of God. St. Faustina died in 1938, on the cusp of war and in the midst of one of the most violent centuries in the history of the world.

Her story and her diaries began circulating in Poland and beyond. It quickly became apparent that this was a holy young woman, and the cause for her canonization opened. In the year 2000, she was canonized by the first-ever Polish pope, St. John Paul II. On her canonization day, he established the second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday, "a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind will experience in the years to come."

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS - MAY 8, 2022

The purpose of World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:30; Lk 10:2).

As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity), secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life. 2022 marks the 59th Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

Youth & Young Adults Corner

Hello Youth & Young Adults of SJV!

On this Second Sunday of Easter, known as Divine Mercy Sunday, please allow me to share an excerpt from St. Faustina's Diary about the depth of Jesus' love for you and I.

Soul: Lord, I doubt that You will pardon my numerous sins; my misery fills me with fright.

Jesus: My mercy is greater than your sins and those of the entire world. Who can measure the extent of my goodness? For you I descended from heaven to earth; for you I allowed myself to be nailed to the cross; for you I let my Sacred Heart be pierced with a lance, thus opening wide the source of mercy for you. Come, then, with trust to draw graces from this fountain. I never reject a contrite heart. Your misery has disappeared in the depths of My mercy. Do not argue with Me about your wretchedness. You will give me pleasure if you hand over to me all your troubles and griefs. I shall heap upon you the treasures of My grace.

Jesus loves you, dear friends. He is God, creator of all things; He holds all things in His divine hands, but the one thing He desires most ardently is your heart. Have you given it to Him yet? If not, what is stopping you?

WITH POPE'S BLESSING, KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS TO GIVE 10,000 EASTER CARE PACKAGES TO UKRAINE WAR VICTIMS

Pope Francis blessed an Easter basket for Ukraine war victims, as the Knights of Columbus work to deliver 10,000 Easter care packages to displaced families in Ukraine.

Patrick Kelly, Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus, met with the pope in a private audience on April 11 while en route to western Ukraine, where he delivered care packages to families who have taken refuge in a 14th-century monastery in the Archdiocese of Lviv.

"By distributing these Easter care packages to Ukrainian families, we are sharing the light and hope of Christ's Resurrection, even in this time of darkness and war," Kelly said in a statement on April 12.

During his audience with the pope, the Supreme Knight discussed the Knights of Columbus' humanitarian efforts in Ukraine and Poland to aid those suffering from the war.

Pope Francis then offered his blessing upon an Easter basket, which represented the thousands of care packages being delivered by the Knights during Holy Week.
