15th Sunday

IN ORDINARY TIME

"But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight." - Lk 10:33

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Only Love Counts

“Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers’ victim?” He answered, ‘The one who treated him with mercy.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’” (Lk 10:36-37)

The parable of the Good Samaritan places before us a classic example of what Jesus considers a model of good behavior. In addition, this parable has a second lesson since the protagonist was a “Samaritan;” a man belonging to a race despised by those who considered themselves the “Chosen People.” The lesson is simple: you are the “Chosen People” only if you love. Love cannot be replaced even by prayer and the sacraments when what God is asking you, at any given moment, is to help your neighbor. Praying, receiving communion, and going to confession are manifestations of that love, but they cannot be considered the only expressions of love, especially not at the expense of forgetting about the needs of others.

But there is one more lesson in this parable, and it is addressed to those who analyze their conscience from the perspective of not committing sin, of not doing evil. They tend to forget that there is a very subtle but very frequent sin: that of omission. Neither the priest nor the Pharisee had done anything wrong to that beaten man. However, the Lord did not set them up as a model of behavior for His disciples. He who can do good and does not do so commits a sin, an even greater sin, because of the greater need of his neighbor. Christ does not ask us to solve the world’s problems, but He does ask us to contribute our little bit, no matter the effort, so that those problems are solved. We must not forget that love is a command, the duty of the Christian.

ASPIRATIONS: When you notice that someone needs help, come to his aid with all your strength, without getting overwhelmed, but being aware that Christ is present in your neighbor in need and that He awaits you there.

Palabra de Vida

Domingo XV: Sólo vale el amor

“¿Cuál de estos tres te parece que se portó como prójimo del que cayó en manos de los bandidos?. El letrado contestó: El que practicó la misericordia con él. Le dijo Jesús: Anda, haz tú lo mismo” (Lc 10, 29-37).

La parábola del buen samaritano nos pone ante los ojos un ejemplo clásico de lo que Jesús considera un buen modelo de comportamiento. Esa parábola tenía, además, una segunda lectura, pues el protagonista era “samaritano”, un hombre perteneciente a una raza despreciada por los que se consideraban el “pueblo elegido”. La lección es sencilla: se es “pueblo elegido” sólo si se ama. El amor no puede ser sustituido ni siquiera por la oración y los sacramentos, cuando lo que Dios pide en un momento concreto es que se ayude al prójimo. Rezar, comulgar o confesarse son una manifestación de ese amor, pero no pueden considerarse como las únicas expresiones del amor, sobre todo a costa de olvidar las que hacen referencia a las necesidades del prójimo.

Pero hay otra enseñanza más en la parábola, y va dirigida a aquellos que analizan su conciencia desde la perspectiva de no cometer pecados, de no hacer el mal. Suelen olvidar que hay un pecado muy sutil pero muy frecuente: el de omisión. Ni el sacerdote ni el fariseo le habían hecho nada malo a aquel hombre apaleado. Sin embargo, el Señor no los puso como modelo de comportamiento para sus discípulos. El que puede hacer el bien y no lo hace, comete un pecado, tanto mayor cuanto más grande es la necesidad de ayuda que tiene el prójimo. Cristo no nos pide que resolvamos los problemas del mundo, pero sí que pongamos nuestro grano de arena, incluso con esfuerzo, para que esos problemas sean resueltos. Amar, no hay que olvidarlo, es un mandamiento, un deber para el cristiano.

Propósito: Cuando veamos a alguien que necesita ayuda socorrerle con todas nuestras fuerzas, sin agobiarnos, pero siendo conscientes de que Cristo está en el prójimo necesitado y nos espera .

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

Faith is the theological virtue by which we believe in God and believe all that he has said and revealed to us, and that Holy Church proposes for our belief, because he is truth itself. By faith "man freely commits his entire self to God." (CCC§1814)

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. (Hebrews 11:1)

"Lord, I believe. Help, my unbelief." (Mark 9:24)

What Is Faith? We will be discussing "Faith" in our second session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 20th of July 2025.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

LOOKING FOR PEOPLE TO SERVE OUR LORD

In the months of July and August, The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd extends the opportunity to serve our Lord Jesus, The Good Shepherd, by inviting people to join His team. This opportunity comes in two forms: as Catechists helping the children in our program to start a deep relationship with our Lord Jesus, or as volunteer, helping the children and the catechists with different tasks of daily life in the atrium. If either of these options do not appeal to you, you are also invited to become a sponsor and donate to our program in the way you wish to do including buying supplies, giving us gift cards, or donating items that can be of good use, etc.

If Our Lord Jesus knocks at your door, and you want to answer His call, please, give contact us or send a text message to 415-430-5275. Rosamaria Alvarez will be happy to take your call. You can also email her at CGS@sjvparish.com.
