PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Work and Pray

“The Lord said to her in reply, ‘Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her.’” (Lk 10:41-42)

Continuing with last week’s theme, both the Gospel and the “Word of Life” now offer us not a parable but the beautiful story of Jesus’ stay at the home of Martha and Mary. This text shows us not only two models of women, but also two different ways of behaving before God and His demands, as well as in the face of life itself. One of these models is the anxious and active Martha, and the other one is Mary who prays and listens. From our spirituality of gratitude, precisely because it is based on the imitation of the Virgin Mary, we must try to unite both models because what really matters is for us to express our gratitude to the Lord by loving. Sometimes, loving means praying and attending Mass and, at others, it means working, performing works of charity, and apostolic work.

Out of love, we have to be diligent and hard-working, just as Martha was. At the same time, also out of love, we have to be contemplative, like Mary. He who loves, prays. But, at the same time, he who loves, works. Our life should be spent in search of balance between both things; by listening to what God is asking of us at every moment and by trying to apply the “ora et labora” (“pray and work”) of Saint Benedict. It often happens that he who prays also works, while the opposite is not always the case. So, we see people, even representatives of the Church such as some priests, who are very active but have no time for prayer. Therefore, praying is the first step in our apostolate. Knowing, of course, that the second step is service to others. And always and in everything, to love, for praying is loving, fulfilling our duties, and helping the needy.

ASPIRATIONS: Do not omit personal prayer—not even for a single day—no matter what. Attend Mass daily and go to confession regularly. Be attentive to the needs of those around you.

Palabra de Vida

Domingo XVI: Ora et labora

“El Señor le contestó: Marta, Marta: andas inquieta y nerviosa con tantas cosas; sólo una es necesaria. María ha escogido la parte mejor y no se la quitarán” (Lc 10, 38-42).

Continuando con el tema de la semana anterior, el Evangelio, y con él la “palabra de vida”, nos propone ahora no una parábola sino el hermoso relato de la estancia de Jesús en casa de Marta y María. Este texto nos muestra no sólo dos modelos de mujer, sino dos maneras diferentes de comportarse ante Dios y ante sus exigencias, así como ante la vida misma. Uno de esos modelos es la Marta inquieta y activa, y el otro es la María que reza y escucha. Desde nuestra espiritualidad del agradecimiento, precisamente por que está basada en la imitación de la Virgen María, tenemos que intentar unir los dos modelos, porque lo que de verdad nos importa es amar para expresarle el Señor nuestra gratitud. Lo que pasa es que amar significa en unas ocasiones rezar e ir a misa y, en otras, trabajar y hacer obras de caridad o de apostolado. Por amor habrá que ser diligente y laborioso, como lo fue Marta. a la vez, también por amor, habrá que ser contemplativo, como María. El que ama, reza. Pero, a la vez, el que ama trabaja. Nuestra vida tiene que transcurrir en la búsqueda del equilibrio entre ambas cosas, escuchando lo que Dios nos pide en cada momento e intentando aplicar aquel “ora et labora” de San Benito. Por otro lado, suele suceder que el que reza también trabaja, mientras que no siempre ocurre lo contrario. Así, vemos a personas, incluso representativas de la Iglesia como algunos sacerdotes, que son muy activos pero que no tienen tiempo para la oración. Orar, por lo tanto, es el paso primero en nuestro movimiento. Sabiendo, eso sí, que el paso segundo es el servicio al prójimo. Y siempre y en todo, el amor. Porque rezar es amar y cumplir con nuestros deberes y ayudar al necesitado también lo es.

Propósito: No dejar la oración personal ni un sólo día, pase lo que pase. Procurar la misa diaria y la confesión frecuente. Estar atentos a las necesidades de los que nos rodean.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"Coequal, Coeternal, Consubstantial" the Holy Trinity is the central doctrine concerning the nature of God in our Catholic Church. We will be discussing the Holy Trinity in our fourth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 27th of July 2025.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

LOOKING FOR PEOPLE TO SERVE OUR LORD

In the months of July and August, The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd extends the opportunity to serve our Lord Jesus, The Good Shepherd, by inviting people to join His team. This opportunity comes in two forms: as Catechists helping the children in our program to start a deep relationship with our Lord Jesus, or as volunteer, helping the children and the catechists with different tasks of daily life in the atrium. If either of these options do not appeal to you, you are also invited to become a sponsor and donate to our program in the way you wish to do including buying supplies, giving us gift cards, or donating items that can be of good use, etc.

If Our Lord Jesus knocks at your door, and you want to answer His call, please, give contact us or send a text message to 415-430-5275. Rosamaria Alvarez will be happy to take your call. You can also email her at CGS@sjvparish.com.

HORARIO DE VERANO

1. La inscripción para Catequesis está abierta hasta el 31 de julio del 2025. Los espacios son limitados, por lo que se recomienda inscribirse lo antes posible. Tenga en cuenta que dejaremos de aceptar alumnos una vez que las clases estén completas, incluso antes del último día de inscripción.
2. Catequesis (Formación en la Fe) no solo prepara a los niños para recibir los sacramentos de la Primera Comunión y la Confirmación, sino que también les proporciona un aprendizaje continuo de la fe católica. Este programa de continuación está dirigido a niños que han recibido la Primera Comunión, pero que aún no tienen la edad necesaria para comenzar el programa de Confirmación.
¡Inscriba a su hijo ahora!
3. Los Certificados de Bautismo, Confirmación y Primera Comunión están disponibles para ser recogidos.
