17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"He will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence." - Lk 11:8

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD, ©LPI

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Ask and You Will Receive

“And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened. What father among you would hand his son a snake when he asks for a fish?” (Lk 11:9-11)

The “Word of Life” for this week invites us to be humble before the Lord and to turn to Him with all our needs. Christ encourages us to ask and reminds us that God is Love and that He will always be attentive to our pleas.

However, there are some “buts.” The first one is in the very essence of the petition. To ask means to beseech, not to demand. And generally speaking, we do not know how to ask. He who asks does not get angry if the request is not granted, for he knows that he is begging for something to which he has no right. Favors are requested, not demanded. Instead, although it may seem that we are asking, what we actually do is demand, as shown by our behavior when we are not given what we have requested: anger, estrangement from God, blackmail, or even loss of faith. Could it be that God did not grant it because we asked incorrectly? Maybe without realizing it, instead of asking, we were demanding?

The second drawback is that we ask only for material things. How should God feel about this behavior of ours? Wouldn't He be much more willing to help us if He saw that what concerns us, above all else, is holiness? What if we asked God with the same insistence for love of Him and our neighbor as we do for ourselves or our loved ones?

Lastly, the fact that the Lord encourages us to ask does not mean that we should just ask. Without gratitude, the request turns into selfishness and wearies the One Who is being asked for help.

ASPIRATIONS: Ask with humility, telling God that it is fine if He does not give it to you. Ask for holiness, that is, to be in love with God. Be thankful for everything you have and offer yourself to Him.

Palabra de Vida

Domingo XVII: Pedid y se os dará

“Así os digo a vosotros: Pedid y se os dará, buscad y hallaréis, llamad y se os abrirá; porque quien pide recibe, quien busca halla y al que llama se le abre. ¿Qué padre entre vosotros, cuando el hijo le pide pan, le dará una piedra?”. (Lc 11, 9-13).

La “palabra de vida” de esta semana nos invita a ser humildes ante el Señor y a acudir a Él mostrándole nuestras necesidades. Cristo nos anima a pedir y nos recuerda que Dios es amor y que está siempre con los oídos abiertos para escuchar nuestras súplicas.

Sin embargo, hay algunos “peros”. El primero está en la propia esencia de la petición. Pedir significa rogar, no exigir. Y nosotros no sabemos, por lo general, pedir. El que pide no se enfada si no se le concede lo pedido, pues sabe que está suplicando algo a lo que no tiene derecho. Los favores se solicitan, no se reclaman. En cambio, nosotros, aunque parezca que pedimos, en realidad lo que hacemos es exigir, como demuestra nuestro comportamiento cuando no nos dan lo que hemos pedido: enfados, alejamiento de Dios, incluso chantajes y pérdida de la fe. ¿No será que Dios no te lo concedió porque pedías mal, porque, quizá sin darte tú cuenta, más que pedir exigías?

El segundo inconveniente está en que sólo pedimos cosas materiales. ¿Cómo debe sentirse Dios ante este comportamiento nuestro?. ¿No estaría mucho más dispuesto a ayudarnos si viera que lo que nos preocupa por encima de todo es la santidad? ¿Y si probáramos a pedirle con la misma insistencia tanto el amor a Él y al prójimo como el resto de favores que suplicamos para nosotros o para los nuestros?

Por último, el que el Señor nos anime a pedir no significa que sólo debamos pedir. Sin agradecimiento, la petición se vuelve egoísmo y cansa a aquel al que se le está pidiendo ayuda.

Propósito: Pedir con humildad, diciéndole a Dios que si no nos lo concede no pasa nada. Pedir la santidad, es decir, el estar enamorado de Dios. Agradecer por todo lo que tenemos y ofrecernos .

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"Coequal, Coeternal, Consubstantial" the Holy Trinity is the central doctrine concerning the nature of God in our Catholic Church. We will be discussing the Holy Trinity in our fourth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 27th of July 2025.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

LOOKING FOR PEOPLE TO SERVE OUR LORD

In the months of July and August, The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd extends the opportunity to serve our Lord Jesus, The Good Shepherd, by inviting people to join His team. This opportunity comes in two forms: as Catechists helping the children in our program to start a deep relationship with our Lord Jesus, or as volunteer, helping the children and the catechists with different tasks of daily life in the atrium. If either of these options do not appeal to you, you are also invited to become a sponsor and donate to our program in the way you wish to do including buying supplies, giving us gift cards, or donating items that can be of good use, etc.

If Our Lord Jesus knocks at your door, and you want to answer His call, please, give contact us or send a text message to 415-430-5275. Rosamaria Alvarez will be happy to take your call. You can also email her at CGS@sjvparish.com.
