14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands!" - Mk 6:2

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

July 7, 2024, FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME -- Formed.org

Review: We have all been in need of something at some time— whether we needed to ask for a favor from someone or had an urgent need that had to be met. When it comes to asking God for things, what do we ask of him? Do we seek comfort, health, wealth, job security, or some other goal? Or, do we seek virtues like patience, humility, compassion, meekness, and so on? Let us turn to God and ask him to grant us the spiritual gifts we need, as we cooperate with his grace and learn to turn to him in all our human struggles.

Featured study: A school of prayer. Pope Benedict.

Reflection: This This week’s Gospel contrasts sharply with the miracles of faith from Jairus and the hemorrhaging woman we read about last Sunday. These people have known Jesus all his life, and the fact that they are surprised by Jesus’s deeds testifies to his humility. Though God, he remained for years an undistinguished member of his community. Only when the Father’s plan ordained it did he begin to work miracles. But this does not win over his neighbors from Nazareth. Because of their familiarity with Jesus, they are irritated when he begins to show his mighty power.

This Gospel is warning for all. When it comes to faith, especially for lifelong Christians, it is possible to think that we have Jesus all figured out. When this happens, we become upset when he diverges from our expectations. This might be when he asks for faith during a major change in our lives, or when something small occurs and throws off our daily routine. Whenever we experience disappointment or disillusionment, Jesus wants us to trust him. Our plans and our ideas about how God should act must not be the object of our trust. To avoid this pitfall, it can be wise to spend some time examining what our idea of Jesus is, and to pray to know him as he truly is. And as always, the one who can help us best to appreciate Jesus is his Mother.

From the Pastor

I think that we all have experienced some fear when we have been blindfolded, even when we know the place where we are at. That fear might paralyze us to move forward if we didn’t know that there is someone next to us, someone whom we know and in whom we can trust to guide us. We Catholics know that that someone accompanying us through this temporal life toward eternal life is our Lord Jesus Christ, the rock that never fails.

This journey, on which we are about to embark, is somehow new to us all, in the sense that this is my first assignment as Pastor after working as Parochial Vicar for 8 years (6 years and a half working in the US with both the English and Spanish communities, first in Pennsylvania and then in Indiana), and that you will be getting to know and work with Franciscans of Mary Priests, religious Priests dedicated to spread the spirituality of gratitude.

As your new Pastor, I ask you to begin this journey by fixing our eyes with total confidence in Jesus the Son of God, our hope, so that nothing, no-one, and no evil spirit may disturb our hearts from following Him.

As for Fr. Brandon, from Mexico, he’s still in his process to perfect his English. I would highly appreciate your patience and compassion. He is working hard to serve the Lord and his people the best way possible.

I truly feel in my heart that this is now my new home, and that you are my new family. You are now the little cultural diverse flock entrusted to my care by our Lord and His Church, a flock which I will love, guide and defend hopefully with the same virtues of the Most Sacred Heart.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in you.
Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.
Saint John Mary Vianney, pray for us.

Fr. Antonio Gutierrez, FM
Pastor

SJV School

WE EDUCATE WITH VIRTUE

- JUSTICE
- PRUDENCE
- FORTITUDE
- TEMPERANCE

Students are introduced to a Virtue of the Week. They learn the meaning of the virtue and ways to grow in the virtue. Teachers do "Virtue Shout Outs" at our weekly all school prayer service for a student in their class who is exemplifying the Virtue of the Week or working hard to grow in the virtue.

LEARN MORE

We consider it a great privilege to journey with families as they educate their children. As the first educators, parents, teach their children many important things, some of the most important can never be supported by teachers in public schools. Our Education in Virtue program supports parents as they teach their children who they are (where they fit in your family and their community) and whose they are (recognizing that they are a child of God) so that they will respond to their world with both kindness and grace. To learn more, call the school office to schedule a personalized school tour at (916) 363-4610.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

Faith is the theological virtue by which we believe in God and believe all that he has said and revealed to us, and that the Holy Church proposes for our belief, because he is truth itself. By faith "man freely commits his entire self to God." (CCC§1814) Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. (Hebrews 11:1)

"Lord, I believe. Help, my unbelief." (Mark 9:24)

What Is Faith? We will be discussing "Faith" in our second session of the first year of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 14th of July 2024.

For those who have been through OCIA, RCIA, or are longstanding Catholics we are offering an opportunity for ongoing faith formation "Bible Basics for Catholics," on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month, 11 -12:30. The course follows Dr. John Bergsma's book, "Bible Basics for Catholics — A New Picture of Salvation History" to be supplied on the first day of class, Sunday, 14th of July 2024 in the Fireside room..

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full and deeper communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call or text (916) 318-9815.

Pope Francis: Jesus in the Eucharist strengthens us in times of trial

Jesus does not spare us from difficulties but strengthens us with the Eucharist to have the courage to face them, Pope Francis said in his reflection on Sunday's Gospel... "When a storm arrives, do I let myself be overwhelmed by the turmoil or do I cling to him ... to find calm and peace, in prayer, silence, listening to the Word, adoration, and fraternal sharing of faith?" the pope asked.

Pope Francis urged people to remember that Jesus is always with us to come to our aid, particularly in the Eucharist. "In the Eucharist, he gathers us around him, he gives us his word, he nourishes with his body and his blood, and then he invites us to set sail, to transmit everything we have heard and to share what we have received with everyone, in everyday life, even when it is difficult," the pope said.

"Jesus does not spare us contrariedades but, without ever abandoning us, he helps us face them," Francis added. "So we too, overcoming them with his help, learn more and more to hold onto him, to trust in his power, which goes far beyond our capacities, to overcome uncertainties and hesitations, closures and preconceptions, and to do this with courage and greatness of heart, to tell everyone that the kingdom of heaven is present, it is here, and that with Jesus at our side we can make it grow together, beyond all barriers."

Palabras Del Pastor

Creo que todos hemos experimentado algún miedo cuando nos han vendado los ojos, incluso cuando conocemos el lugar en el que nos encontramos. Ese miedo podría paralizarnos para seguir adelante si no supiéramos que hay alguien a nuestro lado, alguien a quien conocemos y en quien podemos confiar para que nos guíe. Los católicos sabemos que ese alguien que nos acompaña a través de esta vida temporal hacia la vida eterna es nuestro Señor Jesucristo, la roca que nunca falla.

Este viaje, en el que estamos a punto de embarcarnos, es de alguna manera nuevo para todos nosotros, en el sentido de que esta es mi primer nombramiento como Párroco después de trabajar como Vicario Parroquial durante 8 años (6 años y medio trabajando en los EE.UU. tanto con la comunidad americana como con la hispana, primero en Pennsylvania y luego en Indiana), y que ustedes estarán conociendo y trabajando con Sacerdotes Franciscanos de María, sacerdotes religiosos dedicados a difundir la espiritualidad del agradecimiento.

Como su nuevo Párroco, les pido que empecemos este camino fijando nuestros ojos con absoluta confianza en Aquel que es nuestra esperanza, Jesús el Hijo de Dios, para que nada, ni nadie, ni ningún espíritu maligno pueda perturbar nuestros corazones para seguirle.

En cuanto el P. Brandon, mexicano, aún está en proceso de perfeccionar su inglés. Agradecería mucho su paciencia y compasión. Él está trabajando duro para servir al Señor y a su pueblo de la mejor manera posible.

Realmente siento en mi corazón que este es ahora mi nuevo hogar, y que ustedes son mi nueva familia. Ahora ustedes son el pequeño rebaño culturalmente muy diverso confiado a mi cuidado por nuestro Señor y su Iglesia, un rebaño al que amaré, guiaré y defenderé espero que con las mismas virtudes del Sagrado Corazón.

Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, en ti confío.
Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, ruega por nosotros.
San Juan María Vianney, ruega por nosotros.

P. Antonio Gutiérrez, FM
Párroco

My Dear Parishioners,
Juan Sobrino is doing an experience with us Franciscans of Mary Priests to discern whether the Lord is calling him to the religious life. He is from Mexico and speaks English. He will be staying here until August 24. Please, pray for him. I believe that your love and support will be key in his process.

Fr. Antonio, FM
Pastor
