THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. - Lk 9:16

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

Corpus Christi: Give Them Some Food Yourselfes

“As the day was drawing to a close, the Twelve approached him and said, ‘Dismiss the crowd so that they can go to the surrounding villages and farms and find lodging and provisions; for we are in a deserted place here.’ He said to them, ‘Give them some food yourselves.’” (Lk 9: 12-13).

There are some theologians who believe that the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fish never really happened and that it was just a result of the conversion of the disciples who, by pooling what they had, allowed there to be enough for everyone. This theory is not true. That miracle really did happen, even though in the teachings of this evangelical passage there is indeed an appeal for solidarity. Christ’s words should ring permanently in our ears: “Give them some food yourselves.” It is a command that the Lord addresses to us in order to stimulate our generosity to share what we have with those who are in need. But, in that passage, the Lord also prayed for the miracle to happen. In a similar way, we are invited to pray both for the multiplication of our goods in case what we have collected through solidarity is not enough, and for the hearts of those who have an abundance of goods to be converted and to decide to share with those in need. Normally, the one who prays feels moved to share. The one who shares, for love of God, feels called to pray and to thank God for being able to share with those in need. That is why, on the feast of Corpus Christi, we have to keep in mind both things: the call to solidarity with our neighbor through works of charity and the call to solidarity with Christ, the Holy One who resides permanently in the Tabernacle and is awaiting our love.

Resolution: Show your love for Christ, present in the Eucharist, by visiting Him and receiving communion. Show your love for Christ, present in your neighbor, through solidarity.

Palabra de Vida

Corpus Christi: Dadles de comer

“Caía la tarde y los Doce se le acercaron a decirle: ‘Despide a la gente: que vayan a las aldeas y cortijos de alrededor a buscar alojamiento y comida, porque aquí estamos en descampado’. Él les contestó: ‘Dadles vosotros de comer’” (Lc 9, 12-13a)

Hay teólogos que opinan que el milagro de la multiplicación de los panes y de los peces nunca ocurrió, que fue sólo fruto de la conversión de los discípulos que, al poner lo que tenían en común, permitieron que hubiera bastante para todos. Esta teoría no es cierta. Aquel milagro sucedió realmente, por más que en las enseñanzas de este pasaje evangélico haya, efectivamente, una apelación a la solidaridad. De forma permanente debería sonar en nuestros oídos la frase de Cristo: “Dadles vosotros de comer”. Es una orden que el Señor nos dirige a nosotros con el fin de estimular nuestra generosidad y de que compartamos lo que tenemos con quien no lo tiene y lo necesita. Pero en aquel pasaje, el Señor también rezó a fin de que sucediera el milagro. Del mismo modo se nos invita a nosotros a rezar para que ocurra la multiplicación de los bienes necesarios en caso de que no baste con lo que hemos recogido mediante la solidaridad, y para que se conviertan los corazones de los que tienen bienes sobrantes a fin de que se decidan a compartirlos con los necesitados. Y es que, normalmente, el que reza se siente movido a compartir y el que, por amor a Dios comparte, se siente llamado a rezar para darle gracias a Dios por haber sido capaz de repartir lo que tenía con los que lo necesitaban. Por eso, en esta fiesta del Corpus, tenemos que tener presente las dos cosas: la llamada a la solidaridad con el prójimo mediante las obras de caridad y la llamada a la solidaridad con Cristo, el permanente solitario en el sagrario, que es un pobre necesitado de nuestro amor.

Propósito: Caridad con Cristo, presente en la Eucaristía, visitándole y comulgando. Caridad con Cristo, presente en el prójimo, mediante la solidaridad.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

CORPUS CHRISTI DAY

This Sunday we celebrate the Most Sacred Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. But, instead of one day, let's celebrate 365 days of a year the unmeasurable gift of Jesus Himself. On Holy Thursday, Jesus said to his apostles, "I have wished to celebrate this Passover with you!" He still wanted to remain with them. He wanted to go through His passion, death and resurrection and fulfill His Father's plan but still remain here with His flock. At the Last Supper after the meal Jesus said, "This is my Body" over the bread and, "This is my Blood" over the wine to institute the Eucharist as His way to remain with us. 2,000 years later we still have His body, His blood, His soul and His divinity with us in the sacred, Holy Eucharist. Let's adore Him, let's love Him a little more each day, until our heart is full of Jesus and we as St. Paul can say, "I no longer live, but Jesus lives in Me." Dear God, Almighty Father, please teach me to love, give me the gift of loving Jesus with all my heart.
