SAINTS PETER AND PAUL, APOSTLES

"You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." - Mt 16:18-19

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way, find Christ irresistible.

Word of Life

Sunday XIII: God Is First

“And to another he said, ‘Follow me.’ But he replied, ‘Lord, let me go first and bury my father.’ But he answered him, ‘Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.’”
(Lk 9:59-60)

Christ's attitude toward the family, or the other great human values that claim an important place in the heart of man, is not easy to understand or explain. In fact, on one extreme, some cut off everything and love no one, as if God were jealous of human love. Others, on the opposite extreme, prefer those legitimate loves to the love of God, Who then occupies a secondary place.

God has the right to reign in our hearts. He claims the first place. He deserves to be loved more than anyone else: more than family, country, job, and health. But He does not want to be the only one. All legitimate loves must be reconciled, but that will be possible only if God is first. God's primacy in our hearts puts the rest of our loves or interests in their proper place. When this does not happen, everything is unsettled and jumbled, dislocated and disorganized: people disproportionately value their work, idolize their bodies, crave having fun, or love their family so much that they are even willing to commit a crime.

God is first and, as such, He will always tell us where we are going astray. Sometimes, we will hear that we are forgetting our family. On other occasions, He will call attention to our not having paid enough attention to our job, our friends, our country, or the good of all. Also, when we relegate God to other things, with the excuse that they are more important because they are good, what frequently ends up happening is that these things also end up by being relegated to yet other things that are not as good.

ASPIRATIONS: So that God comes first, begin by dedicating more time to Him. Then, act accordingly or at least feel guilty every time you do not do so.

Palabra de Vida

Domingo XIII: Dios es el primero

"A otro le dijo: ‘Sígueme’. Él respondió: ‘Déjame primero ir a enterrar a mi padre’. Le contestó: ‘Deja que los muertos entierren a sus muertos; tú vete a anunciar el Reino de Dios’” (Lc 9, 59-60).

La actitud de Cristo ante la familia o ante los otros grandes valores humanos que reclaman un puesto importante en el corazón del hombre, no es fácil de entender, ni de explicar. De hecho, mientras unos caen en un extremo -el de cortar con todo y no querer a nadie como si a Dios le dieran celos los amores humanos-, otros caen en el extremo contrario y anteponen esos legítimos amores al amor a Dios, que pasa así a ocupar un lugar secundario.

Dios tiene derecho a reinar en nuestro corazón. Exige el primer puesto. Merece ser amado más que a nadie: familia, patria, trabajo, salud. Pero no quiere ser el único. Hay que conciliar todos los amores legítimos, lo cual sólo será posible si Dios es el primero. La primacía de Dios en nuestro corazón pone el resto de los amores o de los intereses en su puesto justo. Cuando esto no sucede, todo se descoloca y se desordena: se ama exageradamente al trabajo, o se idolatra el cuerpo, o se adora la diversión o incluso se ama tanto a la familia que se está dispuesto a cometer cualquier delito para favorecerla.

Dios es el primero y, como tal, nos estará diciendo en cada momento en qué nos estamos extraviando. A veces oiremos su voz que nos dice que hemos olvidado la familia, mientras que en otras ocasiones nos llamará la atención por no haber atendido lo suficiente a nuestro trabajo, a nuestros amigos, a la patria o al bien colectivo. Además, con frecuencia, cuando a Dios se le relega en función de otras cosas, con la excusa de que éstas son más importantes porque son buenas, lo que termina por pasar es que a esas cosas también se les termina relegando por otras que no son tan buenas.

Propósito: Para que Dios sea el primero, empezar por dedicarle más tiempo. Y luego obrar en consecuencia o, al menos, tener sentido de culpa cada vez que no lo hacemos así.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

SAINT PETER AND SAINT PAUL, PRAY FOR US.

Today we celebrate with great joy the lives of St. Peter and St. Paul the most important apostles in Christianity. St. Peter whose name was Simon, had his name changed to Peter by Jesus, who had chosen Peter as the rock upon which He was to build His Church and who was given the power to keep the key's of the Kingdom of God. St. Paul also had two names: Saul, his Jewish name and Paulus, his Roman name. Jesus called him Saul of Tarsus in the vision Saul had on his way to Damascus. He is the only apostle who did not know Jesus in his lifetime and one who persecuted the disciples of Jesus. His vision about his encounter with Jesus on the road to Damascus caused Paul's conversion and after his baptism, Paul became an apostle of Christ. His writings are until now the most important source of information about Jesus and his teachings. Blessed be our God for giving us St. Peter and St. Paul!
