JUNE 4, 2023 | THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY
 God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. - Jn 3:16

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT
 Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

FORMED

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

June 4th The Most Holy Trinity Sunday — Formed.org

Review: In our reading from Exodus, Moses has an incredible encounter with God. Moses didn't want an abstract knowledge of God, but wanted to know the Person of God, to see the face of God, to learn God's name. In response, God reveals his innermost name. Why is this so important? When we know a person's name, we can enter into a relationship with them. So when Moses learns God's name, he begins to learn God's character as well. Moses talks about God's rich, steadfast love, and those characteristics become a kind of mission statement: "The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." In fact, this "mission statement" from Exodus 34 is the most quoted line of the Pentateuch. Throughout their history, the Israelites have held onto God's mercy and from that identity comes God's deeds-his mercy, his kindness, and his steadfast love. Then in the Gospel of John, we get the famous line about God so loving the world, that he gave his only Son. This highlights two of the key actions of God: first his love, and second, his giving. Through this we learn that love is an action, not a feeling, and that love is expressed in giving. From all of this we come to realize that God is a loving God who wants to share his goodness with us, so he gives us the Son, who infinitely gives himself back to the Father. This love and mutual self-giving is the Person of the Holy Spirit, for God is love and his deeds are love. God is one God, with Three Persons united in love, and the Holy Spirit is the manifestation of that giving love.

Featured study: Wisdom & Works for Mercy: Season 8: Communion

Reflection: "God so loved the world ..." This is one of the best known phrases from the Bible. It's not at all uncommon to see "John 3:16" on placards at sporting events or even on roadside billboards. It has become emblematic of the whole Gospel of Jesus Christ because it tells us in brief about the whole of salvation history and the Father's plan for the human race. In Jesus, the Father's only Son, the Father announces not only his intent to save the world, but also his very divine identity as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. In the Person of Christ, these two dimensions of the Gospel, redemption, and revelation, are intimately united. By revealing who he is, God simultaneously reveals his saving love. The God who loves us to the end as St. John will later say in Chapter 13 in his Gospel reveals the depth of that love first in his self-revelation to us that he is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Out of the immense fire of love that God is in himself-the eternal exchange of love between the three divine Persons-comes the saving love of Christ's Incarnation. The pierced side of our Savior on the Cross pierces our hearts to reveal the essence of Trinitarian love. The immensity of the divine love, in both its redeeming and revealing dimensions, fills us with the confidence that he comes not to condemn the world, but so that we "might not perish but have eternal life."

From the Pastor

This Sunday is Trinity Sunday. We ponder anew that God in His unity is a play of multiplicity: Lover, Beloved, and shared Love. Or, as we also proclaim, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. If we allow it, this mystery heals our temptation toward self-hatred and destruction. We all know how awful it is to look into the mirror and not know the person we see, or, equally bad, to know and hate who we see. Jesus, the Son of God, draws us into the dynamics of authentic self-knowledge and self-love. Perhaps we could ask the Holy Trinity this Sunday to teach us to truly look at ourselves and to properly love who we see looking back.

On this Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we are also reminded to encourage one another, to show affection and support. Can we do it? Can we do it in our daily interactions, in our families? Can we even do it on social media?

SJV School

Congratulations Graduates!

Your entire school family is proud of the work you have done to arrive at this important milestone. If you find yourself with a cross, you find yourself with Jesus. —Fr. Mike Schmitz

Mikayla, Angelika, Gabriella, Amanda, Mark, Elijah, Miranda, Isaiah, Zachary, Jaden, Emiliano, Emmanuel, Joseph, Andrew, Mico & Isabella

SJV School is proud of the class of 2023! These young women and men have worked diligently to achieve this remarkable milestone. Here's to celebrating each student for a job well done. St. John Vianney Catholic School continues to be humbled by the students who graduate year after year for their commitment to God, for their determination to learn, for their maturity as young people in this world. This would not be possible without the love and support of many. To the teachers and to the parents; we acknowledge your tireless efforts to help your child(ren) along their academic journey with SJV School. We are blessed beyond measure that you have entrusted our school community to be part of your lives. Congratulations, class of 2023. We are proud of you!

With love & prayers,
The SJV School Community

'Pope urges Italian Bishops' assembly to address challenges of Church and world'

The dialogue between Pope Francis and the Italian Bishops on Monday afternoon was frank and serene. On 22 May, the Holy Father met with over 200 bishops of the Italian Bishops' Conference (CEI), gathered for the 77th General Assembly at the Vatican.

They spoke of young people and vocations, finances and ideologies, the ministry of priests and seminaries, peace, the environment and concern for charity, the latter of which the Pope expressed great appreciation for the Italian Church. The Pope opened the work of the bishops' spring meeting, which runs from Monday until 25 May in the Aula Nuova of the Synod, on the theme "Listening to what the Spirit is saying to the Churches: Steps towards discernment"....

Their conversation also focused on the ministry of priests, to whom, as always, the Pope asked the bishops to show closeness. There was no lack of reference to peace, in Ukraine and in the world, an urgency that concerns everyone, then to the ideologies of our time, then to the various cultural problems and the issue of finances, which often represent a difficulty for the Church.

Also at the centre were environmental issues for which a change of mentality is needed. A 'new style' is also what is called for by the synodal path involving the Church of the five continents. Along with this came the invitation to pay attention to poverty, old and new, and above all to never let charity be lacking.

Celebrating Bishop Emeritus William K. Weigand's 60th Anniversary of Priestly Ordination

Bishop Emeritus William K. Weigand will offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament on Sunday, June 4, 2023 at 10:00 AM in thanksgiving to God for sixty years of priestly ordination. All are invited to celebrate this significant milestone with him.

Northern California has been blessed by this devoted disciple and zealous shepherd. The courage, wisdom, and generous charity of Bishop William serve as an inspiration for all the faithful, religious, and clergy in the Diocese of Sacramento. May Jesus, the Good Shepherd, bless his faithful servant with continued health and grace. Ad multos annos!

KNIGHTS FEED THE HUNGRY

Over a thousand athletes, coaches and volunteers gathered for the Special Olympics Spring games held on May 3 at Vista Del Lago High School in Folsom. Knights of Columbus councils in the area, including our own Council 5322, gathered to prepare an outstanding and delicious lunch for all. Our own Carlos Vasconcelos and his son Tyler were key contributors as they hustled the burgers from the grill to the preparation area. A good time was had by all.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

The Knights of Columbus is an international Order of Catholic men who are called to lead with faith, protect our families, serve others and defend values in a busy changing world. Our local council Blessed Sacrament Council 5322 will be holding a membership drive at the Saturday 6 PM, Sunday 8 AM and Sunday 10AM Masses on the weekend of June 3-4. Whether you become an individual member or a member of our council you will find that Knights of Columbus membership brings Catholic men together in a powerful way. If you would like to join today simply go to KofC.org/joinus and enter our council #5322 for local information.

MEET YOUR NEIGHBOR THIS WEEK SOUTHWEST ROOM

Join us after the 8:00 am & 10:00 am Masses. Enjoy a cup of great coffee and donuts while meeting new friends. Your host this week is the Knights of Columbus.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (CGS)

June starts with the cleaning of our Atrium. We all help to clean up the materials we used and put them to rest for the entire Ordinary Time/Summer vacation. Yes, we in the Atrium go on vacation, but we do not go alone. We go with the Holy Trinity. Last Sunday, we received the Holy Spirit, the third Person of the Holy Trinity. Every time we make the sign of the Cross on our bodies, we are inviting the Holy Trinity to be with us, to accompany us, to help us with our daily works and activities. As Jesus said, we are not alone! We have the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit with us always to help guide and bless us constantly. We'll be back during the first week of September 2023. So, we take the opportunity to wish you all a very blessed, happy and restful Summer Time.
