MAY 14, 2023 | SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth." -Jn 14:16-17a

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT
 Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

FORMED

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

May 14, 2023, Sixth Sunday of Easter— Formed.org.

Review: While our salvation was won by Jesus's Death, our lives in Christ are not completely fulfilled until we receive the Advocate, the Spirit of truth, that Jesus promised to send us. That Spirit of truth is the Third Person of the Trinity, the Holy Spirit. It is only through the Spirit that we are able to enter into the fullness of communion with the Father and the Son and embrace the Good News of the Gospel in our daily lives. Today's First Reading shows us how that works. Although Jesus himself had passed through Samaria, and even revealed himself as the Messiah to the woman at the well, it wasn't until after the Holy Spirit had come that the people in that region were able to fully accept Philip and his teachings about Jesus. Then, once they were able to accept Jesus through Baptism, Peter and John came, prayed, laid hands on the people, and the Holy Spirit descended upon them. This reading may shed some light on the important distinction between the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation. Baptism brings us into the family of God, but Confirmation enables us to live out the Christian message with greater courage and conviction through the Holy Spirit. Moreover, Jesus says that not only is the Spirit with us, but he also actually remains within us. This is why Jesus tells us that "I am in my Father, and you are in me and I in you." Through the action of the Spirit, we are united in an unprecedented way with God and can truly become his sons and daughters.

Featured study: Saint Peter. A movie with Omar Sharif is fantastic.

Reflection: John begins his Gospel, "In the beginning was the Word," and the importance of words in his Gospel is partly derived from that foundational statement. As the Word, Jesus is the definitive law of God. In himself he expresses the new law, the new commandment, the new covenant of love. He makes clear in this passage that like the old covenant, one must obey the commandments of God as an act of love for God. For the Jews and for Jesus, love and law aren't opposed—they're vitally linked. This obedient love leads to "seeing" and "recognizing" in John. In the RSV edition, "recognize" is translated as "know," which better connotes of an active relationship between the knower and the one known. So obedient love, keeping the commandments, leads to a knowing that's mysterious and, perhaps, comparable to the knowledge of marriage. The world cannot know the Son, Spirit, or Father in this way; rather, only the obedient disciple can be caught up in this embrace. In that embrace, love and law melt into one; just as the vows of marriage are at one and the same time a law under which the spouses place themselves and a word of love that they share.

Highlights

6th Sunday OF EASTER

"If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you."
-Jn 14:15-17

Blessing of Mothers

During the season of Easter, what a great time to remember our mothers and ask for God's blessing on them. It is God who ultimately gave us life. It is through God's unselfish love—mirrored in our mothers' willingness to associate their love with God's and take the risk to love us into life—that we have the opportunity for life. We remember our mothers this Mother's Day with much love. Let us pray for each of them:

God our heavenly Father, you give to each the ability to share your generative love.

Bless those women in our lives who mirror your love and bring forth life through their willingness to risk bringing new life into this world.

Help us to show them our gratitude for the gift of life and the gift of a mother's love. May our life-giving God continue to bless them and show them his unfailing love.

We ask this through Jesus, God's Son and our brother.
Amen.

St. John Vianney is proud to celebrate our second grade students who will be receiving their First Eucharist on May 13th

"Jesus loves hidden souls. A hidden flower is the most fragrant. I must strive to make the interior of my soul a resting place for the Heart of Jesus." - Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska

St. John Vianney Catholic School is proud to celebrate our second grade students who received their First Eucharist on May 13th. Students who are making a commitment to a faith filled life, service to God, and a heart like Jesus are one of the proudest outcomes of an education at St. John Vianney Catholic School.

Thank you to the parents and family members, teachers and clergy for supporting these bright students, loving them on their sacramental journey.

'Pope's May prayer intention: For ecclesial movements and groups'

Pope Francis is dedicating his May prayer intention to ecclesial movements and groups, which says are a "gift" and a "treasure" in the Church.

In his video-message, published each month by the Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network, Pope Francis says, "These movements renew the Church with their capacity for dialogue at the service of her evangelizing mission." He notes, too, that each group has its own unique charism, which allows them to demonstrate both the beauty and the novelty of the Gospel proclamation.

Each charism is different, he explains, thanks to the creativity that marks the various groups and movements. Although they seem to be speaking different languages, by understanding themselves, they are able to make themselves understood.

At the same time, the Pope warns them to avoid the temptation of turning in on themselves, by inviting them to continue to work "at the service of the Bishops and the parishes."

Pope Francis encourages them to "always be on the move, responding to the impulse of the Holy Spirit to the challenges in today's world," while remaining "in harmony with the Church, since harmony is the gift of the Holy Spirit."

The Holy Father concludes his message with the prayer "that ecclesial movements and groups may daily rediscover their mission, an evangelizing mission, and that they place their own charisms at the service of the world's needs."

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS (K OF C)

Meets 2nd Wednesday, 7:00 PM, Fireside Room

Wives, sisters and mothers, the Knights need you. Many of our Knights got their start with encouragement and support from their spouse or family member. Is there a Catholic man in your life who could benefit from the fraternity of the Knights? The Knights of Columbus are Catholic men who make each other better Catholics and we have fun doing it. We like to call it "iron sharpens iron." Get your man off the couch and have them join the Knights. You won't be disappointed.

PARISH VOCATION COMMITTEE

St. John Vianney Vocation Committee exists to foster vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Our purpose is to guide and encourage our parish community in prayer. We also assist in giving information about vocations, support and encourage promising candidates and re-direct them to our pastor or our Diocesan Office of Vocations.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (CGS)

This Sunday, we all are celebrating our Mothers. The woman that gave us birth, took care of us day and night, and did everything in her hands to provide for our needs. Let's give thanks to God for the motherly love that always embraces us every moment of our lives. It's with her help that we become the good adults our communities need so much. But, let's not forget to give thanks to God for our Heavenly Mother, who at the foot of the Cross received us with open arms. Our loving Mother Mary, the mother of Jesus, who in His last moments on Earth wanted to share Her with us. Let's give our earthly mother our most heartfelt gratitude and a big hug, and to our Heavenly Mother our love and a rosary each day. Happy Mother's Day to all our mothers! Hail Mary, full of Grace to our Mother in heaven.
