MAY 1, 2022 | 3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. - Jn 21:12-13

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

FORMED

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

May 1, 2022 3rd Sunday after Easter— Formed.org.

Video overview: Today's Gospel reading zooms in on an intimate conversation between Jesus and Peter. Not long before this, at the Passion, Peter had denied Jesus three times. Now the risen Lord asks Peter three times, "Do you love me?" What's particularly interesting about this scene is the language that Jesus and Peter use. When the Lord asks Peter, "Do you love me?" he uses the Greek word "agape," which refers to an unconditional, sacrificial, self-giving love; the deepest love you can imagine. Surprisingly, Peter answers, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you," but instead of "agape," he uses the Greek word "philia," which refers to a friendship; it's not quite the same depth of love as "agape." Clearly, Peter is not ready to give all that Jesus is asking for, but today's readings are all about God's willingness to take whatever we're willing to give him and work with it. In the first reading this week, taken from the Acts of the Apostles, we see that Peter eventually does become willing to give his whole life for the risen Lord. This Sunday's readings challenge us to consider what our response would be to Jesus' question: "Do you 'agape' me?"

Featured study: Episode 10: do you love me

Reflection: Ronald Knox's commentary seems to suggest that a lot of strain has been placed on this passage in trying to make it say things of mystical or sacramental significance that the text doesn't necessarily indicate. It's true that there's a very warm (what he calls "pastoral") feeling about this final scene of the Gospel story. The end of the Gospels signals the beginning of everything else, the rest of time and the whole of eternity. Certainly, one should consider all the significance of Jesus asking Peter to undo his threefold betrayal with a threefold profession of love. Certainly, it's important that Peter's first experience of Jesus' Lordship and his own sinfulness occurred in very similar circumstances (Luke 5:8). But Knox is certainly right, too, in pointing out that this seems to be one of those scenes that are particularly appropriate for restful, joyful meditation. In its haunting simplicity, it tells us more about the Resurrection than could any catechism or theology text.

A PRAYER FOR

Ukraine

God of love,
Our world is wrought with war and violence,
as brother turns on brother,
and the innocent awake to gunfire and bombs.
May Your compassion and healing move hearts and bring a new day to Ukraine.
Fortify your children to resist aggression and instead become instruments of peace.
We ask this in the name of the One who is the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Registration to attend St. John Vianney Catholic School for the 2022-2023 school year is OPEN! Thank you to all our incredible families who - over these past challenging couples of years - have remained committed to our partnership in the Catholic education of your children. We consider it an honor and a blessing to be part of that partnership! If you have not already done so, please take the time to secure your child(ren)'s spot(s) for next year and continue to help spread the word to new families so that our mission can be experienced by that many more families!

Pray. Study. Love. Serve.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS - MAY 8, 2022

The purpose of World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:30; Lk 10:2).

As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity), secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life. 2022 marks the 59th Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

Youth & Young Adults Corner

Hello brothers and sister of SJV,

A few weeks ago, I wrote to you about how our faith is about Jesus Christ, a person. Because of this reality, and so our faith is – at its core – about relationship with the Creator of heaven and earth; relationship with, in, and through His Son, Jesus Christ. To grow in this relationship, we need to repent of our sins. Now, the word “sin” is thrown around so casually that we often may lose an appreciation for what it means. Rather than thinking of sin as a list of arbitrary “noes” from a 2,000-year-old institution, we need to realize that a sin is any time we choose to love something more than and over God. It is when we say “God, I love this thing/act more than you.” Repentance, then, is not simply “avoiding bad things.” True repentance is a radical reorientation of our whole life, a return, a conversion to God with all our heart, an end of sin, a turning away from evil, with repugnance toward the evil actions we have committed. At the same time, it entails the desire and resolution to change one’s life, with hope in God’s mercy and trust in the help of his grace (CCC 1431).

My friends, there is no better time than now to begin. Just as in today’s Gospel when Jesus is asking St. Peter, so too is He now asking you: “Do you love me?”

What say you?

EASTER ISN'T OVER YET. HERE'S WHEN IT ENDS.

Catholics recognize Easter — when Christ rises from the dead after sacrificing his life for all of humanity — as the first Sunday after the first full moon on or after the spring equinox. But, as it turns out, they can continue saying “Happy Easter” into June. Easter lasts for a total of 50 days, from Easter Sunday until the feast of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit comes upon the apostles, Mary, and the first followers of Christ. This year, 2022, Easter runs from April 17 until June 5. Catholics observe Easter in different stages. Easter Sunday is the greatest Sunday of the year, and it marks the start of the “Easter Octave,” or the eight days that stretch from the first to the second Sunday of Easter (also known as Divine Mercy Sunday). The Church celebrates each of these eight days as Solemnities of the Lord — a direct extension of Easter Sunday. The entire Easter season lasts 50 days, and includes the Solemnity of the Ascension of Christ, which falls on the 40th day of Easter, which this year is May 26. It ends with Pentecost, which is derived from the Greek word "pentecoste," meaning “50th.”

POPE'S MAY PRAYER INTENTION

For faith-filled young people: We pray for all young people, called to live life to the fullest; may they see in Mary's life the way to listen, the depth of discernment, the courage that faith generates, and the dedication to service.
