6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another." - Jn 15:16-17

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

May 5, 2024, SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER-- Formed.org

Review: This week's Gospel picks up where last week's left off, and we hear Jesus continuing to teach us the metaphor of the vine and the branches. And like last week, the First Reading is an example in the early Church of what happens when we remain on the vine. While this week is certainly a deepening of last week's themes, there is at least one new dimension. In the First Reading, we see another Pentecost take place when Peter preaches the Gospel to the first Gentiles. We see Peter's life bearing much fruit in all of these new believers, but we also see Peter as the head of the Church discerning God's will in that moment. Because Peter, and thus the Church, was attached to the vine, he was able to perceive the new movement of the Holy Spirit to welcome Gentiles into the new covenant. The Catholic Church plays a vital role in our ability to remain on the vine throughout all of history. As new circumstances arise, God has given us the gift of the Church to help us recognize where his love is so that we can remain with him. We know that God does not ask anything from us without giving us the grace to respond, and that grace always flows through his Church so that we can be assured that we are truly following him in all truth.

Featured study: Vita. Heaven is the final, fulfilled answer to our deepest longing for communion and it needs to be shared with everyone. This Documentary is a stunning and thought-provoking wonder. Enjoy.

Reflection: Last week, we saw Jesus use the analogy of the vine and branches to teach us about discipleship. To be fruitful disciples, we need to abide in him. In the Gospel passage for this week, Jesus tells us that we abide in him through love. Jesus loves his disciples with the divine love that the Father gives him. This agape love or selfless love is the very same love manifested by the Father when he sends his son into the world (cf. John 3:16). The assurance of this love brings us joy and calls for a response from us, the same kind of response that Jesus gives the Father through unconditional obedience to him. We also must manifest our reciprocal love to God through obedience to his commandments. The love that Jesus gives and desires in return is not a purely emotional love based on feelings but one that is based on action, specifically in laying down one's life for the good of others just as Jesus did for each of us. Our Christian joy spurs us on to this Christ-like love. Our joy is founded on our friendship with Christ. Jesus calls his disciples friends for whom he lays down his life. We are no longer slaves because we share in the same mission with Jesus. However, our friendship is based on obedience in the same way that the love of the Father and the Son requires obedience. We have been called by Jesus to share in his friendship and mission to bring Christ's love to others and bear fruit for the kingdom. As privileged members of God's family, chosen by him and with our wills aligned to his, we can confidently bring all our needs to God in prayer entrusted to the name of Jesus, knowing that God will answer our prayers (cf. 1John 5.14).

From the Pastor

May is the Month of Mary!
Here are 3 ideas of how to honor Mary this month:

1. Celebrate with a May Crowning: May Crowning is celebrated by crowning a statue or image of Mary with a wreath of flowers to honor her as Queen of Heaven and the Mother of God.
2. Pray the Rosary: What better way is there to invoke the Blessed Mother than with the rosary? Consider praying it more frequently, even with family and friends!
3. Spend time in Marian Reflection: Consider reading a Marian devotional, or learning more on the Marian Scapular or Marian Miraculous Medal.

Athletics Program - Joining a sport team can help students gain confidence, develop leadership and teamwork skills, and improve their ability to focus, problem-solve, and think of their feet.

Community & Friendship - Students build a strong community while supporting other community members. The students at SJVCS are encouraged to consider their place in the St. John Vianney Parish and Rancho Cordova communities.

Building a Moral Framework - Our students are encouraged to pray, study, love, and serve as we help them grow in virtue so the values that you teach in your home are being reinforced on our campus.

A Variety of Extra Curriculars - SJVCS offers leadership, academic, arts, and sports programs to keep students engaged.

High School Preparedness - A Catholic education focuses on academic excellence. With the knowledge and support that they receive from us and their families, SJVCS graduates are well-prepared to step into high school. 100% of our graduates are accepted into their first-choice high school.

MORE ON BAPTISM

The words, the water and the oils are the gifts of Baptism. Baptism is a Sacrament of Initiation that opens the doors to the Church and Heaven. Baptism is a gift from God. In Baptism, we receive the gift of the Light of Christ- Jesus shares His light with us. We have His light inside our hearts. And with the water, the word, and the oils we receive the gift of Jesus' life. Through baptism we participate in the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ and receive the gift of a new life. With the oils we are anointed on the chest, hands and on the head, and we become members of the kingdom of God. We are called by name to be a child of the light, a child of God. So many gifts are received at baptism!

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"Traditionally, we Catholics view sharing our faith as we do brushing our teeth; an excellent habit but just not in public." - An anonymous OCIA Lead

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit...And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age." - Jesus Christ in The Gospel of Matthew 28:19-20

"Christian hope sustains us in committing ourselves fully to the new evangelization and to the worldwide mission, and leads us to pray as Jesus taught us: "Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven." - Saint John Paul II

This week on Sunday, 12th of May 2024 we will be discussing Evangelization in our thirty-sixth and final session of OCIA 2023-2024, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and do you seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church.

"If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie, OCIA Leader by emailing him at ocia-english@sjvparish.com or call/text 415 813-9500.

Pope at Regina Coeli: Jesus the Good Shepherd awaits us with open arms

Greeting the crowds in Saint Peter's Square for the midday Regina Coeli, Pope Francis reflected on the Gospel reading for the Fourth Sunday of Easter dedicated to Jesus the Good Shepherd. The Lord repeats three times that "the good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep," the Pope observed, underscoring that He loves each and every one of us without limit and sacrificed his life for us.

A shepherd during Christ's time required spending entire days and nights caring for the sheep, not just a few hours a day, the Pope explained. And the good shepherd knows each one of his sheep, looking out for them, searching for them if they are lost, ensuring their safety and needs are met by living in symbiosis with them.

Jesus not only shares the life of the flock, knowing each person by name, searching for us when we go astray until He finds us, but is "the Good Shepherd who has sacrificed His life for us and has given us His Spirit through His resurrection," the Pope continued.

The image of the Good Shepherd then shows us how the Lord is not only our guide, the Head of the flock, but how above all He "thinks of each of us as the love of His life," the Pope underscored, as the Lord sees each of us as "important, irreplaceable, worth the infinite price of His life." And this is not just a way of speaking, the Pope said, the Lord "truly gave His life for me, He died and rose again for me, because He loves me and He finds in me a beauty that I often do not see myself."
