OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

Nov 12th Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time—formed.org

Review: The story of the Foolish and the Wise Virgins can be difficult for us in the 21st century to fully appreciate. Not only do we not understand the wedding customs themselves, but the actions of the Wise Virgins also seem rather selfish: why wouldn't they just share with the Foolish Virgins and then everyone could go to the wedding and have a good time? If the point of the story was to encourage sharing, then that's probably how Jesus would have ended it. But the point is to tell us that we must be patiently prepared for the coming of our bridegroom—Jesus himself the oil in the story represents the light of faith as it applies to good works and charity. And while there are many things we can do in pursuit of our spiritual life that we can share with others, there are certain things that we can do only for ourselves: things that build up the oil in our own lives—like reading the Scripture, attending Mass, and offering up our daily sacrifices. No one can do those things for us ... and we can't do them for anyone else. As we read this week's Gospel, we are reminded that although we are all invited to the wedding feast of the Lamb, we must do our part by being ready at all times to meet the bridegroom, who will come like "a thief in the night." We must make sure that we have sufficient "oil" to light the lamps of our lives because no one can give us that "oil" at the last minute. This wasn't an easy teaching to accept in Jesus' day, and it's no easier today. We all have the tendency to want to be recognized, to be important, to be respected. But Jesus says that if we want to be elevated in the sight of God, we need to humble ourselves in the sight of men. It is only when we recognize hypocrisy in ourselves and take steps to root it out that we can begin to allow the Holy Spirit to work in us, changing us and the world we live in.

Featured study: Daily Reflections — September 5, 2023: prepare your heart for Christ's coming

Reflection: We typically hate being caught off-guard. In fact, much of our life is about preparation and planning: we schedule events on our calendar; we buy groceries in advance; we dress differently for different activities. Being prepared for life is an essential component of life. Jesus, however, will point us beyond our day-to-day preparations to emphasize how prepared we should be for that final meeting, when he returns as the bridegroom-king. Jesus teaches us with the parable of the ten virgins—attendants waiting for the wedding feast to begin. After much delay and nap taking, the bridegroom finally arrives on the scene. Sadly, half of the virgins are caught unawares. They have run out of oil for their lamps. These foolish virgins represent Christians who are not prepared for the Lord's return. Some scholars see the oil as symbolizing the righteous deeds of believers, which the foolish virgins have failed to do. On the other hand, the wise virgins have been "keeping vigil" for Wisdom (see Wisdom 6:15) and are ready for his arrival. They are invited to come into the wedding while the others are stranded outside. The interpretation is simple: we want to be ready, awake, and vigilant for the return of Jesus in order that we might enter into the eternal wedding feast of the Lamb. The finality of eternal punishment is terrifying, but the irrevocability of eternal life is tantalizing. Our hope is in the Lord, not in ourselves, yet we participate in our own redemption and spiritual growth by our moral action. If we neglect the "oil" of doing good, we will fall into the "sleepiness" of sin.

Pope Francis: Like Benedict XVI, be 'humble laborers' for the Church

At a Mass for Pope Benedict XVI and deceased cardinals and bishops on Friday, Pope Francis urged Christians, especially pastors, to be the humble servants of others.

"I like to recall the very first words with which Pope Benedict described himself following his election: 'a humble laborer in the vineyard of the Lord,'" the pope said in St. Peter's Basilica on Nov. 3. "Indeed, Christians, especially the pope, the cardinals, and the bishops, are called to be humble laborers: to serve, not to be served and to put the fruits of the Lord's vineyard before their advantage," he added. "What a fine thing it is to renounce ourselves for the Church of Jesus!"

"Let us pray for our beloved deceased brethren," Pope Francis said in his homily. "Their hearts were pastoral, compassionate, and humble, for the Lord was the center of their lives. In him may they find eternal peace."

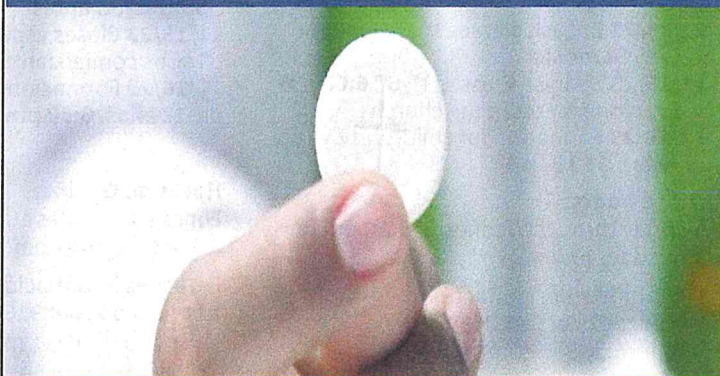

The Mass for deceased cardinals and bishops is celebrated every year at the Vatican during the week of All Saints' and All Souls' Days.

Altar of the Dead

Remembering the Souls of our Loved Ones

Parishioners are invited to share a photograph (copy) of their loved ones who have passed away—especially those who have passed in the last year—to be placed at the Altar of the Dead. The Altar is located in the Niche where the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary normally resides. We will remember all of our beloved dead for the entirety of the Month for All Souls. Please bring copies of photos (no bigger than 4"x6") so that we might have room for all of our community's photos.

An inspired retelling of the Eucharistic Miracle of Bolsena-Orvieto, "Faith Prevails" follows the journey of Fr. Peter of Prague, a priest doubtful of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. When the Host begins to bleed during Mass, he must come to terms with his own disbelief while the witnesses of the miracle experience changes in their own faith.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS)

The children and staff of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd want to thank John Wallace and Martin Wong for allowing us to get a closer look at the church, the Altar, the Tabernacle and the Sacred vessels kept in the Sacristy. Our Visit to our Lord Jesus was one we will remember always. Many blessings to you for sharing your gifts with us.

This coming Thursday, we are being blessed in a very special way: Our pastor, Father Giovanni will vest for us before celebrating Mass late in the afternoon. We will hear his prayers and see how he prepares himself for the great celebration of the Eucharist. We feel very privileged!

Eschatology: The Last Things & Saints

"...there came a great earthquake; the sun became black as sackcloth, the full moon became like blood, and the stars of the sky fell to the earth as...The sky vanished like a scroll rolling itself up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place." - The Apostle Saint John

"The only real sadness, the only real failure, the only great tragedy in life, is not to become a saint." - Léon Bloy French Catholic and apologist

When your "stars of the sky fall to earth" will you be a saint? Next week we will be discussing Eschatology: The Last Things & Saints in our thirteenth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 19 November 2023.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and do you seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church. If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.org or call / text 415-813-9500.
