OCTOBER 8, 2023 | TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." - Mt 21:42ab

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

FORMED

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

Oct 8th Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time - formed.org

Review: It's said there are only a few basic plots for most stories. What the storyteller does with the plot—the twists and turns that are added—is what makes a story memorable. In this week's Gospel, Jesus takes a story of a vineyard, which would have been very familiar to his audience, and gives it an unexpected twist. The priests and elders whom Jesus was addressing would have been very accustomed to the image of Israel as a vineyard. Prophets like Isaiah in the first reading had used the illustration for hundreds of years. So, Jesus' audience probably wasn't expecting him to use the story against them. Instead of focusing on the poor fruit that the vineyard was producing, Jesus concentrates on the tenants who are responsible for tending the fields. He says that when the master wants his produce, the tenants mistreat and even kill the messengers. When the owner finally sends his own son, the tenants kill even him. In hearing that story, the priests, and elders had to have realized that they were the tenants who hadn't been good stewards of the master's fields. They had to see that they were the ones who rejected the prophets sent by God. They might not, however, have completely understood that the person telling the story, Jesus, was the Son of God and that in a very short period of time, he would be rejected and put to death. We do know and so we are forced to ask ourselves the question: What kind of a tenant am I in the Father's vineyard? Am I welcoming the Son when he comes to the vineyard to collect the produce, or am I rejecting him by failing to produce good fruit in my words and deeds?

Featured study: Chosen: How Christ sent Twenty three surprised converts to replant his vineyard

Reflection: Jesus says bluntly in this parable, "The kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will yield a rich harvest." Here Jesus suggests that the kingdom of God was already in the world at his coming and that the Jews were the current heirs of it. If the kingdom is synonymous with the covenant, as this passage suggests, then the New Testament is filled with covenant language, since the kingdom of heaven or the kingdom of God is one of the central elements in Jesus' teaching and preaching. The linguistic shift from "covenant" to "kingdom" may be precisely indicative of the prophecy that Jesus utters about the passing of the vineyard to "others who will see to it that he has grapes at vintage time." The new tenants, the faithful Jewish and Gentile followers of Jesus, might have felt more at home with a new designation for the covenant that they were now to inherit. Since Jesus was the new Son of David, what better way to designate the new Davidic covenant than as the definitive "kingdom of God."

From the Pastor

All are welcome!

See you all at the Plaza!!!

SJV School

St. John Vianney Catholic School students have a beautiful curriculum in their religious studies subject. Education in Virtue is a program that teaches children what is to be a virtuous individual. All of our students have this opportunity, from 4-year old TK students through 8th graders. Every person is born with the capacity for virtue. In an effort to be intentionally virtuous, our students practice weekly virtues by learning what they look like, what they sound like or what they feel like. Each Friday, our school meets as a community to celebrate students who exemplify the weekly virtue, lifting them up and acknowledging their amazing character. So far this school year, our students have learned about the virtues of charity, prudence, justice, orderliness, docility, obedience, responsibility and foresight. We know the investment in learning this content is a significant component of what sets our school and students apart from others. We value our students as young people, calling on their hearts to do good in the name of God be it at school, in their community or at home. To learn more about SJV School, please visit our website, www.sjvschool.org or call the school office (916)363-4610.

'You don't play with life': Pope Francis condemns euthanasia, abortion on papal plane

Pope Francis condemned euthanasia and abortion as actions that "play with life" and said there is such a thing as "bad compassion" during a press conference aboard the papal plane from Marseille to Rome on Saturday.

"You don't play with life, neither at the beginning nor at the end. It is not played with!" he told journalists Sept. 23, as he returned from a two-day trip to Marseille, in southern France, to speak at a meeting of young people and bishops called Mediterranean Encounter.

"Whether it is the law not to let the child grow in the mother's womb or the law of euthanasia in disease and old age," he said, "I am not saying it is a faith thing, but it is a human thing: There is bad compassion."

Pope Francis said it is not just an opinion that life should be safeguarded and warned that it is easy to fall into an idea that pain should always be prevented, even through what some might consider a "humanistic euthanasia."

Pope Francis has condemned euthanasia throughout his papacy, including referring to it as "a sin against God."

He has also been firm about the need to provide the very ill and dying with palliative care, which seeks to improve the quality of life of people suffering from severe illnesses.

"We must accompany people towards death but not provoke death or facilitate assisted suicide," he said in 2022.

Parish Announcements

IMPOSTER PRIEST

The Diocese have learned of more than 10 instances since March 20, 2023 where this man has accessed or attempted to access parish buildings in the Dioceses of Santa Rosa, Sacramento, Fresno, Orange, San Bernardino, Baker (Oregon), and Fargo (North Dakota). He has been recorded as he rummaged through parish office drawers and cabinets and is believed to be responsible for stealing cash from more than one rectory.

On August 25th, this subject returned to the Sacramento Diocese and contacted staff at a parish office in the City of Sacramento claiming to be a priest with an appointment to meet with the parish priest who was still in the church celebrating Mass. He was not able to get inside any parish buildings and was observed driving away from the parish in a silver passenger van similar to the model shown below.

If this man is spotted on parish property, notify law enforcement and, if safe to do so, try to obtain a description and license plate number for the vehicle he is operating. Clergy, staff, and parishioner safety is of utmost importance. Please do not allow any unknown individual to have access to rectories or non-public areas of the parish office or the sacristy of the Church.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Jesus is Calling Us Deeper

HE PROMISES TO RESTORE AND RENEW HIS PEOPLE
Our world is hurting. We all need healing, yet many of us are separated from the very source of our strength. Jesus Christ invites us to return to the source and summit of our faith in the celebration of the Eucharist. The National Eucharistic Revival is a movement to restore understanding and devotion to this great mystery here in the United States by helping us renew our worship of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist.

FORMED

WATCH

An inspiring feature film on Saint Pope John XXIII, starring Edward Asner in an acclaimed performance as the beloved pontiff, who came from common stock and was known for his simplicity, courage, and love for humanity. Shot on location in Rome and Italy, and produced by the Italian film company Lux Vide, makers of Pope John Paul II and Saint Rita, this movie tells the whole life story of John XXIII from his youth through his young priesthood, episcopacy, life as cardinal, and eventually his life as Pope. Elected supposedly as an "interim Pope" who would just keep the status quo and listen to the advisers around him, John XXIII proved to be his own man when he surprised the Church and world by calling for the Second Vatican Council. This film also underscores his wonderful sense of humor and great charity towards others, especially the poor, downtrodden, and the outcast. Shot in widescreen, with excellent acting and beautiful cinematography, the film also stars Claude Rich, Sydney Rome, Massimo Ghini, and Franco Interlegli.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

We will be discussing The Church Year & Places in a Catholic Church in our eighth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 15 October.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who have never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Coordinator, OCIA-English@SJVParish.com or call /text 415-813-9500.
