SEPTEMBER 17, 2023 | TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." - Mt 18:21-22

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples, we help others become disciples, and work to renew our culture.

FORMED

OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

Sept 17 Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time - formed.org

Review: Forgiveness is never easy. We can identify with Peter, who wonders how many times he has to forgive someone who harms him. He had to be shocked when Jesus says seventy-seven times, meaning an unlimited number of times. Since most of us have trouble forgiving even once or twice, such a standard is hard to comprehend. To help Peter, and us, understand that we are to forgive so much because we have been forgiven so much, Jesus tells the parable of the servant who owed a great debt to his master. When we hear this story, we often miss the magnitude of it because we don't understand the currency. The first servant owed 10,000 talents, which would be about 3.6 billion dollars! When he says he would pay back the debt, Jesus' audience would have realized that was ridiculous. No one could ever repay such a debt. In contrast, the servant himself was owed 20 Denari, about $6,000, a not insubstantial amount, but something that could be repaid in time. Jesus wants us to realize that our debt to God is like 10,000 talents utterly unpayable and yet God willingly and lovingly forgives us our debt. The things people do to us are like the debt of 20 denari hurtful and challenging, but not insurmountable. Jesus is telling us that if God can forgive us our enormous debt, we must be willing to forgive the much smaller debts owed to us by those who have hurt us. When we refuse to forgive, as we learned last week, the grudges we hold become chains that bind us. The more we cling to our unforgiveness, the tighter the chains wrap us and, like the servant who was handed over to the torturers in this week's Gospel, we too are handed over to the torture created by the hardness of our own hearts.

Featured study: How can the Catholic Church forgive sin

Reflection: Jesus, the Master Teacher, doesn't simply say in this reading that we should forgive others if we wish to receive mercy; he shows us what it would look like if someone were forgiven who refused to forgive others. St. Peter asks how often we should forgive those who offend us and Jesus says, "Seventy-seven times." Jesus then illustrates his point with a striking story: "That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to" The example gives the instruction about forgiveness extra weight. By the time the story is reaching its climax, Peter is likely feeling real disgust for the actions of the unforgiving official and real pity for the servant that got "throttled." Then, when the evil has been made evident in the actions of the corrupt official, Jesus delivers the personalized moral message. No doubt we join Peter when we react to the moral of the story with a desire to be merciful like the master and avoid the corruption-and punishment-of the unforgiving servant. The Master Teacher has gently introduced the concept of Divine Mercy to Peter and to us.

Vatican News

By Deborah Castellano Lubov, Vatican City, August 30, 2023

'Pope at Audience: St. Káteri Tekakwitha shows ordinary acts can achieve great holiness'

Quiet, everyday actions can manifest great holiness. Pope Francis said this as he praised Saint Káteri Tekakwitha, the first Native American saint of North America, during his General Audience on Wednesday in the Vatican's Paul VI Hall.

The Pope was continuing his series of catecheses on apostolic zeal, and how men and women's holy witnessing to the Gospel across the world can spread the Christian faith.

Reflecting on the saint, the Pope noted that Káteri, born in upstate New York, was the daughter of a Mohawk chief and an Algonquin Christian mother, who taught her to pray and sing hymns to God.

"Many of us have also been introduced to the Lord for the first time in the family, especially by our mothers and grandmothers," the Pope said. He noted that evangelisation often begins like this, "with simple, small gestures, like parents helping their children to learn to talk to God in prayer and telling them of his great and merciful love."

Káteri's faith foundations, and many of ours, the Pope observed, were laid in this way.

"Let us, too, by drawing strength from the Lord, as St Káteri Tekakwitha did," the Pope said, "learn to perform ordinary actions in an extraordinary way, and thus grow each day in faith, charity, and zealous witness to Christ."

The Pope praised her great witness, lived out even in what could seem small acts.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival
Prayer After Receiving Holy Communion
My Jesus, I love and adore You. You have come to me; I am one with You. I want You to remain with me forever, in this life and in the next. Thank You for allowing me to share Your Divine Life. May I become more like You through this Sacred Food. Let me never take You for granted, but always pray for those whose lives are dark with sin and ignorance and selfishness. Let me remember, in the words of Saint Paul, that "there, but for the grace of God, go I." Each day, I can become more like You, O Lord. And each day I can pray for those who have never heard the Gospel, or who have heard it and rejected it. Amen.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (CGS)

We are enjoying our time with Jesus!!! We are singing again and praying for our families, friends, and for our country. "God is so Good," "Be Still and Know that I Am God," "Who Are You Lord," are some of the songs we have been singing these first sessions. We also have jobs/duties to do at the beginning of each session. Our works are prayers to the Lord, as is our singing. We know that singing is a double prayer and we love praying double. When you come to the Sunday Mass, enjoy your singing, practice praying double, it's so good! Have a blessed Sunday! The children and staff of the Good Shepherd.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"Coequal, Coeternal, Consubstantial" the Holy Trinity is the central doctrine concerning the nature of God in our Catholic Church. We will be discussing the Holy Trinity in our fourth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 24 September 2023.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who have never received the sacrament of confirmation and seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie OCIA Leader by emailing him at OCIA-English@SJVParish.org or call or text 415 813-9500.
