OUR VISION

That all who experience St. John Vianney Parish in any way find Christ irresistible.

Sept 3 Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time — Formed.org.

Review: Jeremiah is angry in today's first reading. So angry, he says that God had duped him. The connotation is that God has somehow let him down and deceived him. If you know something about Jeremiah's life, it's easy to see why he feels this way. God called him to be a prophet and then appointed him to bring very bad news to the Israelites: they were going to be sent into exile for their sins. Needless to say, such a message wasn't very popular and the prophet has to bear the brunt of the people's anger. In turn, Jeremiah becomes angry with God for saddling him with such a thankless task. In the end, however, Jeremiah concedes that even if he wanted to, he couldn't deny the Word of God that burns within him. We can find ourselves in a similar place. When the Word of God burns within us, it can be sweet, but sometimes it can be very difficult. If we are to faithfully pronounce that Word, we must be totally in love with the Lord, for it is only when we are enamored with God that we can do what St. Paul says: offer our entire lives as a sacrifice to God to be consumed. Just as Jeremiah was consumed and transformed by the Word that burned within him, we likewise need to be transformed until we become completely pleasing to the Lord. This transformation then leads us from thinking in human terms to thinking as God thinks and putting on the mind of Christ, as St. Paul says, so that we can unite ourselves fully and completely with Our Lord.

Featured study: Into His Likeness with Dr Edward Sri

Reflection: Our Gospel passage follows directly upon the text from last Sunday, where Peter is raised to the loftiest position in the kingdom after that of Jesus himself. And what do we see this week? He is called "Satan!" Assuming that both of these passages together comprised only several minutes of conversation, Peter must have felt like he was on a roller coaster. Notice that Jesus first talks about the fact that he must suffer. Then, after Peter puts his foot in his mouth—probably quite innocently thinking that he was expressing his love for Jesus, Jesus tells Peter that anyone who would follow him must suffer, too. We can easily misunderstand Jesus to be saying to Peter, or to us, "No, don't you get it? Being crowned and celebrated the messianic king would be bad, and suffering an ignominious death is good." Jesus isn't really turning the world upside down. He isn't saying that pleasure is bad and pain is good. He is telling us the unvarnished truth that in a world of sin, love will suffer. And if we choose to love as he did, we suffer as he did. The really revolutionary and revelatory element here is that the reward will far surpass the sacrifice, such that what we call "life" will seem pale next to that new kind of life that love will gain. But, again, we ought not to think that suffering is the point; it is love that gains the prize of glory.

Vatican News

'Pope invites Christians to join together in witnessing the Gospel'

Pope Francis has called upon fellow Christians to bear witness to the Gospel together. He did so in a telegram sent on his behalf, by Vatican Secretary of State, Cardinal Pietro Parolin, to the Synod of the Union of Methodist and Waldensian Churches, taking place this week in northern Italy.

The telegram began by expressing the Pope's delight to greet the synod members, and conveying his hope that the "meeting may be, for each one, an occasion of a profound experience of Christ who welcomes, guides and leads to the fullness of communion with Him and with the brethren."

Pope Francis raised a prayer of praise to God the Father "for the gifts bestowed through ecumenical dialogue," as well as for the "harmonious collaboration" between Christian confessions. He also expressed his desire "to remain spiritually present at this important event, so that we may grow in mutual knowledge in order to bear witness together to the Gospel of Jesus."

The Holy Father concluded by offering his best wishes for the work of this synodal assembly, and invoking the Lord's blessing. The Union of Methodist and Waldensian Churches is an Italian united church founded in 1975, which brings together the Waldensian Evangelical Church and the Evangelical Methodist Church in Italy.

September 9th: Day of Prayer for Peace in Our Communities

In 2016, U.S. Catholic Bishops designated September 9th, the feast of St. Peter Claver, as a Day of Prayer for Peace in Our Communities. Please join in praying for peace in our communities and to promote the equality of and equal opportunities for human beings.

Prayer for Peace in Our Communities:

Let us Pray,
 Our Lord our God, in your mercy and kindness, no thought of ours is left unnoticed, no desire or concern ignored. You have proven that blessings abound when we fall on our knees in prayer, and so we turn to you in our hour of need. Surrounded by violence and cries for justice, we hear your voice telling us what is required "Only to do justice and to love goodness, and to walk humbly with your God" (Mi 6:8).
 Fill us with your mercy so that we, in turn, may be merciful to others. Strip away pride, suspicion, and racism so that we may seek peace and justice in our communities. Strengthen our hearts so that they beat only to the rhythm of your holy will. Flood our path with your light as we walk humbly toward a future filled with encounter and unity. Be with us, O Lord, in our efforts, for only by the prompting of your grace can we progress toward virtue.
 We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Shepherds Field Olive Wood Handcrafts September 9-10, 2023 After all Masses, Church Vestibule

A group from the Holy Land will be selling religious articles after masses to support the Catholic Christian minorities in Bethlehem. As a tradition, many of the Catholic families in the Holy Land work in small workshops to produce religious articles from olive wood. These articles represent the Christian art of the Holy Land. In the past, they used to sell their artwork to pilgrims who visit the Holy Land. However, these days they are facing an economic hardship, as there are not many pilgrims visiting the Holy Land. Many of the Catholic families immigrated and left the Holy Land. The struggle to preserve the Catholic identity of the birthplace of our savior; Jesus Christ is a serious concern for Catholics around the world. Sales will be used to help and support the Catholics in the Holy Land and to encourage them not to immigrate.

The Silver Rose Pilgrimage

The Silver Rose began with the Columbian Squires who had a simple wish; to honor Our Lady of Guadalupe. The first rose was a live rose blessed by Bishop John Cody of London. It then flew to New York where it was then stewarded to Texas and back to The Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico. Now, silver roses make an annual pilgrimage throughout the US, Mexico, and Canada. On their pilgrimage they make various stops at local Knights of Columbus chapters. The Silver Roses not only honor our heavenly mother but they are a symbol of unity across our councils internationally. They are also a representation of our unity in our fight to protect the sanctity of human life. Truly, I cannot express how special this tradition is. Proudly, on September 10th we will be further honoring that tradition as St. John Vianney will be hosting one of these Silver Roses. Should you, your family, and your friends want to participate, there will be a special rosary dedication after the 12:00 PM Spanish Mass here at St. John Vianney.

PLEASE NOTE:

There will be no adoration held this week on Monday, September 4th, in observance of the Labor Day Holiday.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS (K OF C)

Meets 2nd Wednesday, 7:00 PM, Fireside Room
 Wives, sisters and mothers, the Knights need you. Many of our Knights got their start with encouragement and support from their spouse or family member. Is there a Catholic man in your life who could benefit from the fraternity of the Knights? The Knights of Columbus are Catholic men who make each other better Catholics and we have fun doing it. We like to call it "iron sharpens iron."
 Get your man off the couch and have them join the Knights. You won't be disappointed.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (CGS)

WE ARE BACK! This coming Thursday, September 7, 2023, we start Atrium work. It will be our first day in the Atrium after a blessed and restful vacation with our families. We are back to learn more about our Lord and God. We will start with a procession to decorate our prayer table with a green altar table cloth, a Holy Bible, a candle, and statues of The Good Shepherd and Mary, the Blessed Mother of God.

We also plant a pothos plant to decorate our atrium and to make it more beautiful. We are very happy to be back, and have our special time with our Lord Jesus, the Good Shepherd who loves us so much.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

Have you ever wondered what happens during Mass? Going to Mass for a while but are not Catholic? Are you about to attend a Catholic Mass for the first time? Maybe you haven't been to Mass for a long time and can't remember what to do. Maybe you go to Mass regularly, but you're not sure of what's going on.

We are inviting all those who are not Catholic, or a Curious Catholic, to attend a "Mass in Slow Motion".

We are having our second session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, September 10, 2023. At 8:00 am there will be an introduction to the Mass in Father Dwight Hall (auditorium) in the Fireside Room. At 9:00 am we will meet in the vestibule of the church with Father Giovanni. He will conduct the Mass in Slow Motion.

This session will be focusing on the first half of the Mass, the Liturgy of the Word. In the coming weeks we will do another Mass in Slow Motion focused on the second half of the Mass, the Liturgy of the Faithful. Come join us!
