2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them.
- Mk 9:7-8

February 25, 2024, 2nd SUNDAY IN LENT -- Formed.org

Review: If you have ever been hiking in the mountains, you'll know what a false summit is: when you reach a peak that appeared to be the pinnacle of the mountain but see that the true summit is even higher. False summits can cause hikers to give up, despairing of ever reaching their goal. This experience happens to us in our own lives, and it happens to Saint Peter in the Gospel today. We can get to the top of a summit and be so excited that we forget that the true summit still lies beyond us-in Heaven. But if we learn to look at the false summits as signs of the peak, we can actually regain strength in those moments because we remember where our life is ultimately headed. When Jesus brought his disciples to the summit and revealed his glory to them in the Transfiguration, he was trying to give them a glimpse of what was to come so that they could endure his suffering and Death in Jerusalem. Resting with Jesus on our own false summits can help us to remember the true beauty awaiting us in the Cross.

Featured study: Jesus is... by Fr. Mike Schmitz

Reflection: One feature of Saint Mark's account of Jesus's ministry is "the messianic secret," so called because Jesus commands people not to disclose his identity to others. In this passage, however, Jesus makes no secret of his divinity. Why is Jesus concerned about revealing his identity and mission to some, yet provides an epiphany of his Divine Personhood to Saints Peter, James, and John on Mount Tabor? The answer is likely that Jesus, knowing that the prediction of his Passion could shake the faith of his followers, gives them a glimpse of what will lie on the other side. However, another aspect of Mark's account of the Transfiguration on Mount Tabor is that it parallels the events on Mount Sinai in Exodus 24. The entire scene of the Transfiguration is reminiscent of the Theophany (appearance of God), when Moses received the Law on Mount Sinai. Jesus took three disciples up Mount Tabor, just as Moses took three priests of the Old Law onto Mount Sinai. Moses led them up the mountain where the glory cloud of the Lord came down for six days with Moses being addressed on the seventh day; Mark says the Transfiguration occurred "after six days" (RSV). Because it is the prophets Moses and Elijah who appear with Jesus on the mountain, many of the Church Fathers suggest that Moses represents the Old Law, and Elijah the prophets. The appearance of Moses and Elijah is symbolic of the witness that the Law and the prophets give to Christ.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

Today we offer ourselves as companions to those who suffer in the communities through the Annual Catholic Appeal.

We may not all be social workers or work on the front lines of charity, yet through the Annual Catholic Appeal, the whole Catholic community leans in to help our Catholic charities and our own parish to sustain programs and ministries that help lift our neighbors and friends out of the hardships of poverty. The Annual Catholic Appeal is dedicated solely to the social mission of the Church here in Northern California. Last year, 465,000 people were helped by Appeal-funded charitable works. Please be as generous as you can. Every gift makes a profound difference in someone's life.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAS

We are looking for ladies to join a group that does good things in our parish community, state and nation.

The Catholic Daughters of the Americas (CDA) invites you to join us for a meeting. You will meet many new people who have joined our organization. We cannot spell success without "U". For more information about our organization, contact RoseMarie Githens, 916-635-6065.

VOCATION CROSS

Every first Saturday/Sunday of the month at each Mass, a family or individual is invited after the Mass to receive and host the Vocation Cross in their homes for a month, which is accompanied by a short prayer/novena. In taking the Cross, they commit themselves to pray every day the vocation prayer in thanksgiving for those who generously share in church ministry, pray for intercession for the gift of lay ministers, deacons, nuns and priests. Everyone is invited to participate in taking the Vocation Cross home. It is our hope that this experience will encourage each of us to take seriously our vocation as a member of the body of Christ, to encourage all of us to pray for the gift of vocations to priesthood and religious life. May our prayers help inspire young men and women to be attentive to the Holy Spirit and to step forward in faith with generous heart to wherever the spirit leads them.

Sign up online to receive the Vocation Cross into your home, and join us in praying for Vocations at: sjvparish.com

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS)

Jesus said the Kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed, or like a valuable, precious pearl.

During the season of Lent in the atrium, we follow Jesus all around Israel and listen to his preaching about God and the Kingdom of Heaven. We began by listening about the tiny mustard seed that grows into a magnificent tree. Now we will ponder about the precious pearl that a merchant bought after selling all the treasures he had in his house. What does Jesus want us to know about the Kingdom of God? We know Jesus loves us and wants us to go to the Kingdom of Heaven and to be with Him for eternity. This Lent, we will pray more, give more, make more little sacrifices for the love of God, and show more love to people around us. Yes, we want to prepare ourselves better for Easter, We want to make sure, we go to the Kingdom of Heaven to live with Jesus forever and ever. AMEN!

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

Ours is a creedal or confessing faith. As Roman Catholics we rely on the creeds as a unifying and inerrant statement of faith. Creeds refers to the Nicene Creed and the Apostles Creed.

“Our profession of faith begins with God, for God is the First and the Last, the beginning and the end of everything. The Credo begins with God the Father, for the Father is the first divine person of the Most Holy Trinity; our Creed begins with the creation of heaven and earth, for creation is the beginning and the foundation of all God's works.” (CCC 198)

This week we will be discussing The Creed in our twenty-fifth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 25th of February 2023.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and do you seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church.

“If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie, OCIA Leader by emailing him at ocia-english@sjvparish.com or call/text 415 813-9500.
