PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

March 24, 2024, PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD -- Formed.org

Review: This Sunday we find ourselves at a crossroads. As we approach the great mystery of Christ's Death and Resurrection, we are coming to the end of our Lenten journey. It is a time to both look back and reflect, and to look forward and prepare. Holy Week is a unique time in the Church calendar where we are suddenly walking minute by minute with Jesus as he goes through his Passion, Death, and Resurrection. Starting today with Palm Sunday, we enter into Jesus's life in "real-time." The way God works in time during this week can really help us to enter into friendship with Jesus as we walk with him in his sufferings. In order to stay focused during this week, it may help to ask ourselves, "How can I love God love more during this time?" There are so many Scriptures, so many beautiful traditions, and such deep mysteries surrounding us this week all gifts that will help us draw closer to the Lord.

Featured study: Holy Week by Dr. Brant Pitre

Reflection: On Palm Sunday, we stand for one of the longest Gospel readings of the entire liturgical year. Here we read through two whole chapters of the Gospel of Mark that take us from early in Holy Week all the way to Jesus's burial. There is really too much to take in here as we contemplate the mystery and meaning of the Redemption. The liturgical practice of hearing this reading read aloud by multiple lectors and participating by giving voice to some of the lines ourselves leads us into the mystery of Christ's Passion. It is meant to be a powerful and transformative experience that helps us to walk with Jesus in his suffering. Like the Stations of the Cross, in this Gospel we are meant to sit at the Last Supper with the Apostles, weep with Christ in Gethsemane, watch him being tortured, and to stand at the foot of the Cross with Mary. Here our job is not merely to study or think, but to contemplate and stand in awe before the powerful love of our Savior. This long Gospel reading, through which we must stand, also introduces us into the spiritual discipline of Holy Week. Keeping our hearts and minds focused on the long and painful story in the midst of physical discomfort can help us share, even if just in a small way, in the suffering of Jesus.

SJV School

Congratulations to SJV School's Academic Decathlon Students!

*Thank you to the coaches,
Dr. David Sander, Mrs. Emslander, Mr. Lares,
Mrs. Hale & Mrs. Chargulaf*

St. John Vianney Catholic School is proud of the students who participated in this year's annual Academic Decathlon (ACADECA) competition. This academic competition is one of the many extracurriculars offered for students at SJV School. Schools from around the diocese meet to compete in various subjects with different assessment styles all together at St. Francis High School. Our SJV students worked hard to study subject areas such as logic, history, science, math and fine arts. Weekly after school practices were possible with the help of volunteer coaches/ parents. Many thanks to Dr. David Sander, Mrs. Emslander and Mr. Lares for their time and support for this especially fun opportunity for the SJV teams. GO SJV TIGERS! VOCATION CROSS

Every first Saturday/Sunday of the month at each Mass, a family or individual is invited after the Mass to receive and host the Vocation Cross in their homes for a month, which is accompanied by a short prayer/novena. In taking the Cross, they commit themselves to pray every day the vocation prayer in thanksgiving for those who generously share in church ministry, pray for intercession for the gift of lay ministers, deacons, nuns and priests. Everyone is invited to participate in taking the Vocation Cross home. It is our hope that this experience will encourage each of us to take seriously our vocation as a member of the body of Christ, to encourage all of us to pray for the gift of vocations to priesthood and religious life. May our prayers help inspire young men and women to be attentive to the Holy Spirit and to step forward in faith with generous heart to wherever the spirit leads them.

HOLY WEEK IN OUR HOMES

This Palm Sunday, we are on vacation, we are home. We celebrate Holy Week with our families and prepare together for the big celebration of EASTER. Palm Sunday reminds us of the glorious entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem. This is the day when people shout with great joy: "HOSANNA, HOSANNA, HOSANNA in the highest!" In the atrium, this past week we also sang Hosanna to our Good Shepherd who after His great entrance will surrender His life to God to buy us our salvation by opening the doors of heaven for us so that we can spend life eternally with Him. Let us continue our small token of prayers, fasting and almsgiving to show Jesus our love and appreciation for His unmeasurable love for us. Let's make every moment of this week holy to honor our Lord Jesus. Let's love Him back. Blessed Holy Week to all!

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"We are an Easter People and Alleluia is our song!"

- Saint Pope John Paul the Great

Our catechumens have studied rigorously and prayerfully in preparation for this night. The night of Holy Saturday is that night when they enter full communion with the Catholic Church and become part of Saint John Vianney's church community. During that night we will celebrate the Easter Vigil Liturgy. Our catechumens will receive the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist during our thirtieth session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Saturday, 30th of March 2024.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and do you seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church.

"If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie, OCIA Leader by emailing him at ocia-english@sjvparish.com or call/text 415 813-9500.

Vatican News

Pope at Angelus: God embraces us and frees us from our sins

Even if we feel weighed down by sin or mistakes, Jesus is ready to comfort and save us. This was the comforting message Pope Francis offered during his Sunday Angelus address at noon to the faithful and pilgrims gathered in St. Peter's Square. The Holy Father had drawn inspiration from today's Gospel reading according to St. John, which this Fourth Sunday of Lent recounts the figure of Nicodemus. The pharisee, the Pope recalled, saw the signs Jesus performed, recognizing in Him a teacher sent by God, and therefore he went to meet Him by night, so as not to be seen. The Lord welcomed him, conversed with him and revealed to him that He came not to condemn, but to save the world "Let us pause to reflect on this," Pope Francis said, "Jesus came not to condemn, but to save. It's beautiful..." The Holy Father recalled that "no one is perfect," and that "we are all sinners," but that does not interfere with God's incredible love for us. "There are no secrets before the Lord," the Pope noted, explaining that the Lord does not point the finger at us, but "embraces our life," wishing "to free us from sins and save us." "Jesus is not interested in putting us on trial and subjecting us to judgment; He wants none of us to be lost," he said. The Holy Father asked everyone to think of the many times we condemn others or gossip, and encouraged us to ask the Lord going forward to instead look at others mercifully, as Christ does.
