EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Devoted to Jesus Christ as disciples,
we help others become disciples,
and work to renew our culture.

March 31, 2024, EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD-- Formed.org

Review: Happy Easter! This is truly a day to rejoice and be glad. In fact, the Catechism tells us that Easter is not simply one feast among others but the "Feast of feasts." It is the day that we look forward to all year long, in much the same way that we look forward to Heaven our whole lives long. Today, we celebrate what Jesus has done for us and the ultimate destiny he won for us this day. Easter is all about Heaven! When we truly enter into the mystery of Christ's Resurrection, hope should grow in our hearts. This hope is what turns us into witnesses. When we realize what Christ has done for us, our hearts will naturally overflow with love for others. So, how can we get in touch with the reality of the Resurrection this Easter? How is Jesus calling you to witness to the hope and joy of the Resurrection?

Featured study: Eucharist: Episode 8: The Last Supper and the Cross

Reflection: This Easter Sunday Gospel begins with a note of fear. The disciples are huddling together in a locked room, afraid that they too, might be executed like Jesus had been. It is the evening of Easter Sunday, and they have heard reports of the resurrection but have not yet seen Jesus themselves. Rather than waiting for them to come find him, the risen Jesus comes to them and shows his wounds to them. Their fear and unbelief dissolve and fall away in this great moment of witness. Jesus condescends to their human need for evidence, for proof, by showing them the nail marks in his hands. This is not a secret twin brother but in fact, Jesus himself! Jesus is able to transform their fear into faith with his presence. He has defeated death, risen from the grave bodily, and is now standing before them in triumph. Despite the testimony of all the disciples, the one who was not present, Thomas, still doubts. When Jesus comes to them again, he allows Thomas to probe his wounds to confirm his belief. Then Jesus issues an Easter blessing for us: "Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe" (John 20:29 RSV). That's us! We are the ones who are supposed to believe in Jesus' resurrection even though we have not seen physical proof. Faith frees us from fear and unlocks the door to eternal life: "that believing you may have life in his name" (20:31). Jesus defeated death on Easter Sunday and he invites us to share in his victory by faith.

From the Pastor

May you and your family be blessed as you celebrate the gladness and grace of Easter Sunday with hearts full of thankfulness. Let us rejoice in our salvation and tell the good news to all the world.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Giovanni, Fr. Moroney, Fr. Tamayo, Bishop Michael,
Deacons Walter & Daniel,
all parish staff and volunteers

EASTER SUNDAY

Today, we are celebrating Jesus' victory, His Glorious Resurrection. We are thankful for His sacrifice, for His Passion, and for His Death that bought us salvation. Today we are also thankful for His resurrection that gave us hope! Yes, now the doors of heaven are opened for all of us. His love without measure has given us the opportunity to be in heaven with Him forever. This blessed season will last for 40 Days and will end with Ascension Sunday, when Jesus goes to Heaven to join His Father. But don't forget that before leaving, He promised to send the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete. Soon we will celebrate Pentecost Sunday, the coming of the Holy Spirit. The CGS Catechists, Volunteers and families wish you a very HAPPY EASTER DAY.

OCIA Adult Faith Formation

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God."

Hebrews 12:1-2

It begins and ends with our saying "Yes!" to Jesus every day. This week we will be discussing Conversion: A lifelong Process in our thirty-first session of OCIA, the process through which adults are received into full communion with the Church, on Sunday, 7th of April 2024.

Are you a non-Catholic, or a Catholic who has never received the sacrament of confirmation and do you seek full communion with the Catholic Church? Or are you a Curious Catholic who wishes to deepen your faith? Join us at OCIA (Adult faith formation) as we journey toward full communion with the Catholic Church.

"If you are interested in joining us, or know someone who may be, please contact Dr. Philip Eulie, OCIA Leader by emailing him at ocia-english@sjvparish.com or call/text 415 813-9500.

Vatican News

By Christopher Wells, Mar 17, 2024

Gift, forgiveness are the essence of God's glory, Pope says at Angelus

On the Cross, we see the glory of Jesus and of the Father, Pope Francis reminded the faithful at the Sunday Angelus. Reflecting on the Gospel for the Fifth Sunday of Lent, the Holy Father explained that Jesus "wants to tell us that glory, for God, does not correspond to human success, fame, or popularity... For God, glory is about loving to the point of giving one's life."

This, the Pope continued, happened in a definitive way on the Cross, "where Jesus unfolded God's love to the fullest, fully revealing the face of mercy, giving life, and forgiving those who crucified Him."

The Pope went on to say that from the Cross, Jesus teaches us that "gift and forgiveness are the essence of God's glory. And they are the way of life for us."

This implies a standard that differs from the criteria for worldly glory, Pope Francis said. But "worldly glory" he added, "passes away and leaves no joy in the heart; nor does it lead to the good of all, but to division, discord, and envy."

Pope Francis invited everyone to ask themselves, "What is the glory I desire for myself, for my life, that I dream for my future?" Is it worldly glory? Or is it, "the way of gift and forgiveness, the way of Christ Crucified, the way of one who does not tire of giving, confident that this bears witness to God in the world and makes the beauty of life shine? For when we give and forgive, God's glory shines in us."

Letter to the Faithful about Bankruptcy Filing March 16, 2024 | By Bishop Jaime Soto

Dear Friends in Christ:

Last December I shared with you my decision to file a Chapter 11 petition with the United States Bankruptcy Court on behalf of the administrative offices of the Diocese of Sacramento. I will file that petition on Monday, April 1, 2024.

As I shared in the December announcement, the bankruptcy process is the only respectful, and equitable way to address the substantial number of claims by those who have been abused by clergy and other Church Workers. Bankruptcy is a lengthy process, but it provides supervision and transparency for all the parties involved so that an equitable resolution is offered to the victim-survivors of abuse. The court-supervised reorganization will also allow me to sustain the sanctifying, teaching, and charitable work of the Catholic community in Northern California.

The Diocese is creating an easily accessible Chapter 11 Bankruptcy page on its website. On this page you will find all communications from the diocese pertaining to bankruptcy, the latest FAQs, as well as all court filings and documentation.

As this journey of atonement continues, join me in prayer for all the victim-survivors of abuse. May the Lord of mercies also renew us in our commitment to be the disciples of Jesus. Only by God's grace will we emerge from this penitential exercise with greater resolve to be a humble sanctuary of holiness and healing for all the sons and daughters of God in Northern California.

Respectfully,
+Jaime Soto
